INSURANCE COMPANIES IN A BIG POOL FOR LEGISLATION

An Auditor of the Equitable Admits This Before His Inquisitors.

SCHIFF ON STAND

Hotly Defends His Course While He Was Director in the Society.

SAYS HE WAS ONLY A DUMMY

Declares Books of Society Were Falsified and That Hyde Is Trying to Shield Himself—Attacks State Superintendent of Insurance.

ANDREW HAMILTON,
The mysterious legal employe of the insurance companies, whose salary was pooled by the big concerns.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—At the afternoon session of the legislative committee on insurance investigation today Alfred W. Maine, an associate auditor of the Equitable Life Assurance society, called as a witness, disclosed that the Equitable life, the Mutual life and the New York life companies had formed a pool to look after legislation.

Andrew Hamilton, to whom President McCall of the New York life paid several checks, the purpose of which the counsel for the committee, Mr. Hughes, has not yet brought to light, was one of the chief members of the legal staff for these companies, and was employed and received money for services from the Equitable.

Mr. Maine told of the division of the country to be looked after by Mr. Hamilton, in conjunction with E. L. Short and W. P. Thummel. He presented vouchers for moneys paid by his company to Mr. Hamilton. These showed that in eight years, from 1895 to 1903, the sum of $65,596 was paid to Mr. Hamilton for legal services. Mr. Maine could not give any details of the duties performed by Mr. Hamilton nor of the committees he appeared before, beyond the fact that Mr. Hamilton looked after legislative matters for all three companies in the states west of Ohio.

Shared Legal Expenses.

Witness told of an agreement whereby special counsel was employed by one company in its territory, and the expense was shared by all. He was asked if campaign contributions came under his observation, and he replied they did not. He never heard of money being paid to influence legislators. He was excused, but will be called again to submit transcripts of accounts giving information he was unable to supply.

Mr. Maine was followed by Edward I. Devlin, the real estate manager of the New York life for the United States and Canada. He was called to testify as to the cost of the building in Paris. He had only the transcripts of the reports made to the home office, but it was brought out that the Paris building was carried on the books of the company at a valuation of $1,102,604, whereas, with the original cost and improvements on the building, actual money to the amount of $2,533,104 was paid, over $1,900,000 being charged off the valuation on the books of the company.

Mr. Devlin said the net income on the building to the New York life was 1¼ per cent on the actual amount invested in the building, or between 3 and 3½ per cent on the amount at which the building was carried on the books of the company. Mr. Devlin was on the stand when adjournment was taken, but he will be called again to submit transcripts of the records to supply further information.

Schiff Gets Excited.

Not the least important development of the day was the appearance on the stand of Jacob H. Schiff, head of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Most of the time he reclined leisurely in the chair on the witness stand, but as one point after another was brought out, he grew excited and vigorously defended his attitude while a director of the Equitable society, and claimed his firm had acted in a conscientious manner in all its dealings with the society.

At the conclusion of his testimony, and before the committee could adjourn, Mr. Schiff asked to be allowed to make a statement. He was permitted, and he stepped briskly forward on the platform toward a small table and made an impassioned attack on the state superintendent of insurance and statements he had made concerning Kuhn, Loeb & Co. during the investigation of the Equitable. Mr. Schiff emphasized his remarks with rappings on the table and frequently he raised his voice until it was almost a shout.

During his testimony, too, Mr. Schiff made the charge that the minutes of the finance committee regarding a certain meeting were false. He later qualified this, however, by saying if the transaction under consideration, one in Union Pacific preferred, was actually made, he did not hear it, though he was present at the meeting.

Directors Were Dummies.

Again during his testimony regarding the power of the finance committee of the Equitable society Mr. Schiff waxed warm in his explanation and said the entire committee was at the mercy of one man.

"It was all Hyde," said Mr. Schiff, "all Hyde and Alexander. Mr. Hyde wrote the messages regarding the offers made by the firm for participation in syndicates. Mr. Hyde signed all the receipts. Mr. Hyde wrote all the letters."

In the matter of the James H. Hyde and associates syndicate Mr. Schiff hotly accused Mr. Hyde of trying to shield himself. He said the position of a director in the Equitable was that of a negligible quantity, and that the directors were mere figureheads. He said, further, he had never asked any favors of the Equitable society.

"I have granted many favors," he said, "I have not done, as a director of the Equitable, any wrong of commission. I

HAVE NO HOPE IN OHIO FIGHT

Democrats Are Waging Useless Battle in the Buckeye State.

M'LEAN SAYS "NO"

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Room 19, Postal Building,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.

Before leaving today "Joe" Dowling of Dayton, O., who has been here for several days in conference with John R. McLean, announced that the Cincinnati editor would not take any part in the Ohio campaign this fall. Mr. Dowling also delivered himself of an interview in which he admitted that there was very little prospect of Democratic success in Ohio this fall.

Mr. McLean, in his talk with his Democratic lieutenant, indicated that he did not think it would be advisable for him to neglect his private business in order to take part in a losing fight. He said that he was still closely attached to his many political friends in Ohio and that if he thought his efforts this fall would elect Mr. Pattison, the Democratic candidate for governor, he would not hesitate to give up his time to the campaign. Mr. Dowling in discussing the Ohio situation said:

"Ohio is having a remarkable campaign. A week ago it appeared that Pattison, the Democratic nominee, was going to come near election, owing to the fight made on Gov. Herrick by the Anti-Saloon league and the preachers. It may seem strange to see the preachers getting togther to aid a Democrat, but odd things happen in Ohio. You know the brewers and saloonkeepers elected Hoadley governor 32 years ago.

"This year the preachers have a fancied grievance against Herrick personally, and besides, Pattison is a strong Methodist, who favors the strictest observance of Sunday laws and is practically a Prohibitionist. The fight against Herrick is an unfair one. I must admit that, even as a Democrat who will support Pattison, and I think the deep-down sentiment of voters who are not partisans is turning to Herrick.

"Senator Dick remarked the other day that the Democrats always carry Ohio in September and the Republicans in November. I am afraid there is much truth in his statement. Both the candidates are clean men and both men of great personal worth.

"The campaign is warming up. Secretary Taft is to make speeches later and the Republicans will have the strongest sort of argument: 'Stand by Roosevelt.' Our farmers are happy. They have raised huge crops, for which they are getting high prices, and some of them are firmly convinced that the Roosevelt administration brought it all about."

CARNEGIE ADVOCATES A TRIPLE ALLIANCE

The author denominates the countries named as "the three republics, two uncrowned and one crowned."

CANNOT MIX PROHIBITION DEMOCRACY

Berry and Castle Get Badly Tangled in Their Politics

SHAW IS ACCUSED

Pittsburgher Is Alleged to Have Become Bank President Through a Deal.

SPEAKERS STRIKE A FROST

Special Telegram From
WALTER J. CHRISTY, Staff Correspondent.

UNION CITY, Sept. 29.—This little town was selected for the final Prohibition meeting of the series being held in Western Pennsylvania this week for William H. Berry, the Democratic candidate for state treasurer. Before a little audience in the town Hall Homer L. Castle of Pittsburgh renewed his attack on the alleged "farming" of state deposits. His speech was directed against John I. Shaw of Pittsburgh.

"I cannot," said he, "prove the statement, but I am told there is a regular organized arrangement whereby banks are made to pay a percentage to men who control the state money. I believe it to be a fact."

This is a sample of the kind of speeches Castle is making to the people in the rural districts. In a court his evidence would not stand or even be admitted. Of the following statement Castle says he stands ready to prove the charge:

"There is no string to this information. I dug it up myself and can stand over it. We have in Pittsburgh what is known as the Mortgage Banking Company. I have nothing to say regarding the responsibility of the institution. I do not reflect in the slightest on the solvency of the concern.

Agreement Is Alleged.

"Some time ago an arrangement was entered into whereby John I. Shaw became president of the bank. Under the contract by which he became president he was to secure a certain amount of state funds. He was to get, and did get, 2 per cent for securing the investment. He is the same man who, with Senator Penrose, secured the loan from the Turtle Creek bank. I don't say that Penrose was a party to the Mortgage Banking Company transaction. That transaction was plastered all over with dishonesty."

Castle next charged: "In the borough of Bellevue there stand six houses, practically completed, built upon ground that was owned by John I. Shaw. They were built with state money borrowed through the agreement I have disclosed and which he expected to dispose of through the Mortgage Banking Company. Shaw will say that I am killing Berry's chances of election by the kind of speeches I am making. If we can stop the kind of transactions he has been engaged in, I will kill Berry or any one else. It is not the election of Berry we want, but the downfall of the Republican machine."

Only Hearsay Evidence.

The first speech of Castle, made in Harrisburg a week ago, had to do with an alleged transaction with a Turtle Creek bank with which Castle has some connection. He charged that a state deposit of $20,000 was secured and in return a loan of $10,000 was made to Penrose and Shaw. Tonight Castle said he would fix the time when the note was paid and again dropped into hearsay evidence.

"The loan was paid," said he, "with about $150,000 worth of debts of a distinguished man. I'll fix the time—it was about the period when P. C. Knox was elected United States senator. I wouldn't have you understand that I say there is a relation between the paying of the debts and the election of Mr. Knox. I will allow you to draw your own inferences."

Mr. Castle made this interesting statement tonight, which he did not fully explain. In connection with his attacking the disposition of state deposits, he said:

"I got into this by some kind of an arrangement over which I practically had no control."

Here is another sample of Castle's attempt to make his hearers believe something, which he admits he does not know:

"I have not investigated," said he, "to know whether it is true, but I am told there has never been an audit of the state treasury."

Receptions Rather Cool.

Berry and Castle visited Corry and Union City today. The receptions in both

SIXTEEN HURT IN A COLLISION

Two West Virginia Trolley Cars Going at High Speed Meet on Curve.

MISTAKE IN ORDERS

Motorman of Passenger Car Stuck to His Post and Will Likely Die.

PASSENGERS TRIED TO JUMP

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

MARIETTA, O., Sept. 29.—Through a misunderstanding of orders a serious wreck occurred at Briscoe, W. Va., on the Parkersburg & Marietta Interurban line, this afternoon, in which Motorman Thomas Johnson was fatally hurt and 16 others seriously injured by a collision between a passenger and baggage car on a curve.

THE INJURED:

THOMAS JOHNSON of Marietta, motorman north-bound car; right temple and leg cut and internally injured; will die.

CONDUCTOR PHELPS of baggage car; badly bruised and right leg cut.

CHARLES JOHNSON, Kellars, W. Va.; right leg broken.

H. E. GRUBB, Beverly, O.; left arm broken.

MRS. PUGH, Kellars, W. V.; chest crushed.

ELSIE MEISTER, Marietta; left leg broken and chest hurt.

GREENE RUTTENCUTER, Belmont, W. Va.; left ankle and back sprained.

BAILEY H. PARKER, Girard, Kan., head hurt and left leg sprained.

LEWIS PFEIFFER, Marietta; internally injured.

Four others whose names could not be learned were also bruised. The hurt were rushed to the hospitals at Parkersburg and Marietta, where their injuries were dressed.

The wildest commotion prevailed when the cars struck. Many of the passengers saw the baggage car rounding the curve and they attempted to jump, but were not quick enough. Motorman Johnson stuck to his post and he received the most serious injuries. He no doubt saw the car first and could have jumped if he had so desired. Conductor Davison of the south-bound car failed to notify the crew of the north-bound car that the baggage car was following.

KANGAROOS TERRORIZE MARYLAND MOUNTAINEERS

Sturdy Highland Husbandmen Barricade Their Homes Against Escaped Circus Animals.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

PEN MAR, MD., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Mountaineers in the vicinity of this place have barricaded their homes in fear of two kangaroos which have been loose in the mountains for two days.

The animals were part of Robbins' circus which was going over the mountains on a Western Maryland railroad train when the projecting roof of a station knocked open the cages, and the kangaroos escaped. The cages of lions were knocked over, but the beasts did not escape.

The two kangaroos are loose in a country dotted with summer boarding houses and hotels, and their tracks lead close by the most prominent excursion resort on the mountain. Posses of men searching night and day have failed to find the animals.

BULLS TO WEAR FOOTBALL TOGS WHILE FIGHTING

California Has the Promise of Witnessing a Thrilling Affair Near Los Angeles.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

LOS ANGELES, CAL., Sept. 29.—The first bull fight to be held in the western portion of the United States will be fought at Santa Monica, a Los Angeles beach resort. Owing to the severity of the law, which prohibits the bloody and dangerous sport of Spain and Mexico, the matadors will armor the bulls in football costumes to protect the animals from butchery, although it is gruelly announced that the bulls will be killed, as per the regulations of scientific fighting.

George Engelhardt of Mexico has brought a band of matadors and his arena assistants to Los Angeles to conduct the fight, and has been required to give heavy bonds that no real fighting will occur. Posters announcing the event, however, are emblazoned with the statement that "thrills will be plentiful."

Recent fights across the Mexican border have drawn thousands of spectators from Los Angeles, and it is believed that this fight will be the beginning of future contests according to the rules of the Spanish arena.

STEEL CORPORATION BUYS OCTOBER IRON

Valley Merchant Furnaces Sell 40,000 Tons at $15 for October Only.

The United States Steel Corporation interests have bought 40,000 tons of Bessemer iron from the merchant furnaces of the Mahoning and Shenango valleys for October delivery.

The iron will be furnished by the Bessemer association and by W. P. Snyder & Co. The price for the entire lot was $15 at the furnaces, $630,000 in all.

There is no suggestion as yet from the corporation interests as to whether the amount bought will be sufficient to meet its demands for the entire month. It is not believed that there will be any further sales this fall on a basis of $15 at the furnaces, as the price is strongly tending upward.

It can be stated on the highest authority that the management of the steel corporation expects to be in the market for iron each month from now on indefinitely. The orders on the big company's books are sufficient to use up more iron than it can produce, not only for the rest of the year, but far into 1906 as well.

AN OHIO MAN WANTS CONSULSHIP IN CANADA

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Considerable pressure is being brought to bear on the president to secure the appointment of Joseph A. Howells of Jefferson, O., to a consulship in Canada. Mr. Howells is a brother of the novelist. He has the indorsement of a number of prominent public men outside of the state. It is said that the president looks with favor upon Mr. Howells' application and is desirous of giving him a place if a vacancy can be found.

TWENTY-FOUR IN HOSPITAL

College Boys Denude Each Other in Scrimmage at U. of P.

DIVIDE THE HONORS

GARMENTS STREW CAMPUS

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Press Building,
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.

"Soph" and "frosh" met in fierce battle today at the University of Pennsylvania and at the Medico-Chirurgical college. At the university the sophomores were victorious. The casualties were four men sent to the hospital. Total was the loss of raiment. Twenty are in the hospital as a result of the "Ch" contest, but the "freshies" won and they are immune from hazing.

Clothed with the authority which one year of acquaintance with the University of Pennsylvania gave them, the sophomore class, 250 strong, stood around the vice president of their class, Lloyd Emory, this morning, and requested the members of the freshmen class to remove the trousers from his person if they could. Together with a pair of shoes and short hose, they composed Mr. Emory's entire toilette, supported in position by a strong leather belt.

The fight took place in the enclosed amphitheater formed by Houston hall, College hall and Medical hall. It was secluded, but not private, for the juniors and seniors, together with a number of women visitors, filled every window which overlooked the scene. Hundreds of other class men seated on the terrace cheered on the contestants. All that could be heard was "Ole 'em, frosh; ole 'em soph," as if it were a dog fight.

White Trousers in Danger.

Presently, all over the campus there were individual duels of hair-pulling and clothes-tearing, as each freshman wrenched a single sophomore away from the mass and writhed with him in loving embrace which neither will soon forget.

Slowly the ranks around the sacred white trousers of the vice president became thinner and thinner under the organized attack of the "new boys." Presently the sophomores slowly retreated with their man to the wall of Houston hall and put their backs up against it, a move which gave them only one side to protect and which probably won the day for them.

Seeing they could not get the white canvas trousers in time, many of the freshmen forgot the real purpose of the game. After a few gentle turns on the green sod they seemed to believe the object of the struggle was to remove "the pants" from somebody. Accordingly, with renewed vigor they fell to the attack and began to tear off the little raiment which their adversaries had on.

Fair Spectators Retreat.

The sophomores retaliated, with the result that in a few minutes there were more clothes on the ground than on the contestants.

As far as costumes went, the scrimmage took on the aspect of an Ignorote war dance. The spectators at the windows withdrew, but the fight continued until the referee blew his whistle.

At the Medico-Chi for two hours the struggle lasted, and the students fought all over the old amphitheater on College Hill, at Seventeenth and Cherry streets, up and down two flights of stairs, and on Seventeenth, Cherry and Eighteenth streets. The desperation with which the students fought is indicated by the fact that all the resident physicians at the Medico-Chi hospital were kept busy dressing the wounds of the injured "freshies" and "sophs."

BOY WITH A DARK LANTERN IS FOUND BEHIND A DRESSER

Braddock Woman Becomes Frightened When the Furniture Shakes, but She Knew It Was Due to Material Forces Alone.

Mrs. Henry Klaiber of 216 Camp avenue, Braddock, does not believe in spooks. When she entered her bedroom on the second floor of her home at noon yesterday and saw her dresser and mirror shaking violently and a faint ray of light gleaming out from behind it she knew that the unusual phenomenon was due to material forces. Of course, she was frightened, but, unwomanlike, she did not scream. She just went downstairs and informed the neighbors.

The search of an investigating party disclosed William Edie, aged 16, son of George Edie, a well-known mill man of Braddock, behind the dresser. The youth was equipped with a dark lantern, while under the carpet was found hidden a satchel containing watches, rings and trinkets. Mrs. Klaiber identified the satchel and one watch as belonging to her, while the balance of the satchel's contents was not identified.

Young Edie was arrested last spring and taken to juvenile court on a charge of entering a building. He was released upon request of his father, who had intended to send him out west to live with an uncle.

HOLDING BACK ON MR. BERRY

GUFFEY MAKES FINAL APPEAL

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU, Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.

The city committee of the City party at its meeting tomorrow will finally announce its decision on the proposition to indorse William H. Berry, the Democratic-Prohibition candidate for state treasurer. That Berry will not be indorsed is the information tonight given out by men enjoying the confidence of ex-Judge Gordon, who has an option as the Wanamaker representative and on the management of the City party.

Col. James M. Guffey today made a final effort to secure Berry's indorsement. The colonel is very much in earnest. He is aware of the fact that Gordon has tricked City Chairman Donnelly, but is hopeful that the insurgent Republicans in the City party may be able to control the action tomorrow in opposition to Gordon's wishes. In this Mr. Guffey will be disappointed. It is a question if Gordon would not rather see the regular Republican ticket of Philadelphia successful than to make a concession which would be helpful to Col. Guffey's state leadership. Chairman Donnelly tonight gave out the following telegram, sent him by Mr. Guffey:

"The utterances of the Democratic platform adopted at Harrisburg last May, and the action of the Democratic city committee of Philadelphia in faithfully adhering to those declarations, are deserving of the highest consideration by the City party of Philadelphia, and, the success of the City party ticket being the chief desideratum, it does seem to me that this result can be more surely obtained by the City party indorsing the candidacy of Mr. Berry thereby insuring the vote of the rank and file of the Democratic party in Philadelphia county.

"If there ever was a time when wisdom in these matters was needed, that time is now. I shall be glad if you will convey to the leaders of the City party the sentiments herein expressed."

The colonel's message will be submitted to the City party leaders when they meet tomorrow. It will be vetoed by Gordon and this will close the Berry incident so far as Philadelphia is concerned.

Formal acceptance of their nominations by the Republicans was made today: Dr. Joseph Neff, candidate for sheriff; Thomas Dugan, candidate for coroner and Howard A. Chase and William Emsley, candidates for county commissioners. The speech of Dr. Neff is regarded as one of the strongest ever made by a local candidate for office. In part he said:

"My nomination is not due to the choice of so-called leaders, or to the dictation of an organization, but to the suggestion of men who have at heart nothing but the welfare of the city and who believe as I do, that the public interests can best be fostered by the election to office of those who will feel they are the wardens of the good name and prestige of a political party strong enough to punish as well as to reward.

"The dominant party in Philadelphia will remain, as it has been, Republican, and to it alone we must look for any permanent improvement in the administration of the city business.

"Experience justifies the statement that no permanent reform has been established in the municipal government in this country by the so-called independent parties."

Dr. Neff is medical director of Jefferson hospital and his nomination was suggested by 21 members of the Union league. CHESTER D. POTTER.

CHARITIES COMMITTEE FAVORS STREET RAILWAY

John G. Stewart Declares Allegheny Poor Farm Employes Are Not Given Proper Compensation.

The committee on charities of Allegheny councils met last night and ordered printed a measure granting the O'Hara Street Railway Company municipal consent to construct and operate a street car line over the Pittsburgh and Freeport public road, running through the city poor farm at Claremont. The ordinance is to be presented to councils accompanied by a written opinion of the city solicitor as to the legality of granting the request of the railway company.

John G. Stewart of the Twelfth ward presented a resolution to the effect that the special joint committee appointed to inquire into the duties and compensation of city employes with a view to a salary revision be requested to especially consider the employes at the city poor farm. He asserted that many of those working at Claremont were really on duty all the time and were very poorly paid.

"Why, there are employes about city hall who do not work two hours a day who are drawing big salaries, while employes at Claremont are slaving night and day for a mere pittance," declared Mr. Stewart.

Chairman John H. Keane persuaded Mr. Stewart to withdraw his resolution, assuring him that the special committee would give attention to the matter.

TRY TO PREVENT SALE OF PLUNDER

Detectives Are Watching for Securities Stolen from the National City Bank.

NO DESCRIPTION OF THIEF

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—So far as could be ascertained today no attempt has yet been made by the thief who got possession of $360,000 worth of securities by presenting a forged check for them at the National City bank yesterday, to dispose of them. Detectives and the financial men interested in the loss are making every effort to prevent the negotiation or sale of the securities.

The freedom with which securities representing hundreds of thousands of dollars and even certified checks for large amounts are entrusted to messenger boys, was referred to today by an official of the National City bank in discussing the disappearance of the Pearl & Co. securities. He said the loan clerk who was concerned in this affair is not under any censure, for any bank officer probably would have fallen into the same scheme.

The National City bank has been loaning $50,000,000 a week lately, he said, and much of this had been taken away by messenger boys in the form of certified checks. Even as he was speaking, three small messenger boys in uniform came to the loan window, put in securities and drew out checks for loans aggregating $400,000. Securities, and even certified checks are considered unnegotiable in the hands of unknown persons in the street, the bank official said, but they are trusted implicitly to these small boys in blue.

The same reasoning makes it possible for a stranger to the clerk at the window to get out a big block of securities or a big check without being identified, whereas a man with a $10 check in his own name would have to bring somebody in to prove his identity before he could get cash.

The National City bank officers say they have no description of the person who put in the check and got out the bonds.

E. F. Slayback, of the firm of Pearl & Co., said it was possible that the thief might already have realized something on part of the securities. He said:

"I don't think it impossible for the thief to have negotiated the Tobacco and the Wabash bonds. The Tobacco bonds are coupon bonds, and they are worth over $50,000. If he could negotiate them alone, he could throw the rest away. Those bonds have coupons payable on October 1. He could sell the coupons."

ALICE ROOSEVELT MAY BECOME MRS. LONGWORTH

Romance of President's Daughter and Ohio Congressman Has Made Swift Progress in the Orient.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Sept. 29.—Returning members of the Taft party that visited the Philippines and the orient say that the romance in which Miss Alice Roosevelt and Representative Nicholas Longworth of Ohio are the principal figures, seems likely to find its natural conclusion at the altar at no distant day, when Miss Roosevelt will become Mrs. Longworth.

Congressman Longworth has been most attentive to Miss Roosevelt at all times during the trip, and is said to have rescued Miss Roosevelt from a perilous situation in course of a side trip which some members of the party took to the island of Mindanao. Riding on horseback down a steep declivity, Miss Roosevelt was in some danger had not Mr. Longworth come to her assistance at an opportune moment.

Miss Roosevelt, Representative Longworth and some other members of the party will return on the Siberia.

MARDI GRAS AT LUNA.

Costumed Revelers Win Prizes in Money and Furniture—Attendance Breaks the Record.

The mardi gras carnival drew the largest crowd of the season to Luna park last night, the Fourth of July and Labor day not excepted. There were hundreds of costumed revelers in the crowd and at 10:30 o'clock these formed a procession at the foot of the entrance steps to compete for the prizes and marched past the bandstand, where three judges were stationed.

The judges were the Rev. S. Edward Young, I. F. Bailey and Wilbur S. Stack. They awarded four prizes, each of $15 in gold, to Miss Lulu Nusser, 40 Maple avenue, and to Charles Gardner, William J. Black and Frank R. Palmer of Oakland. A Morris chair and $10 in gold were awarded each to H. Slinkamp of 406 Chestnut street, Allegheny, and M. J. Sandford of 1963 Fifth avenue.

The prizes in gold were given by Manager Ingersoll of Luna park and the two Morris chairs by Pickering.

OSTERMAIER NAILS A LIE.

Emphatically Denies the Story Connecting Him With the Lincoln Party's Petitions.

Robert Ostermaier, secretary of the Republican city committee, who has been a Republican all his life, yesterday denied emphatically the statement published in a newspaper that he was managing the work of securing signers to the Lincoln party's petitions.

"The story is not true," said Mr. Ostermaier. "I am a Republican. I am for the entire Republican ticket, state and county. I am going to vote for Mr. Plummer for state treasurer and am doing and will do all I can to help elect him. I have never signed a Lincoln party petition and have no intention of signing one. I have not, either directly or indirectly, asked or encouraged anyone else either to circulate or sign such petitions, nor have I the slightest connection with any efforts that may be on foot to secure signers for the Lincoln party's petitions."

Suez Ditch Will Be Measured Looking to Tourage of the Philippine Floating Steel Dock.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The navy department is making inquiries of the Suez Canal Company as to the dimensions of the Suez canal and tourage charges, in order to determine whether the floating steel dry dock, built for the Philippines, will be taken by the Suez route of by way of the Cape of Good Hope.

If it is necessary to tow the dock by the latter route the start will be considerably delayed, it was stated at the navy department today, as consideration must be given to the storm periods in the different waters through which the dock would be towed.

SURGEON-GENERAL SUZUKI IS PROUD TO BE A CHRISTIAN

Distinguished Japanese Officer Moves Audience to Tears as He Tells Story of His Conversion and That of His Family.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

DETROIT, MICH., Sept. 29.—Intensely dramatic was the moment today when Surgeon General Suzuki of the Japanese navy, fresh from the battles of the Japan and Yellow seas, declared with affecting earnestness and sincerity before the railroad Young Men's Christian Association international convention that he had been for 20 years a Christian. Very proudly, he added, that his wife and five children shared his belief.

Tears dimmed many eyes when the distinguished surgeon told brokenly of the drowning of another child, his 15-year-old daughter, just two days before he had himself been called into the thick of the recent fighting.

He had not urged the question of religion in his family, he said, having trusted it to the guidance of God. His eldest son had been the first to become a convert, having been interested at first through an accidental visit to a Christian meeting while walking along the streets of Tokyo. Next the wife had been converted through the influence of her son, and all the family had followed in the steps of those two.

Struggling to control his emotion, Gen. Suzuki declared his faith in the Christian belief of the future life, saying of his little daughter whom he mourned: "I believe she has gone to our own kingdom."

Gen. Suzuki credited the missionaries of Japan with becoming broader and broader in their views.

"Those who came first," he said, "were too deeply concerned about outward appearances. It was a mistake for them to ask at the very outset, 'Do you smoke? Do you drink? Do you go to church?' for we know now that when one has really entered the church he will naturally give up the things that are evil. We want you to send us good men who will convert our hearts and show us the real meaning of Christianity.

"Japan is supposed to be a non-Christian country, but there are many men, women and children in Nippon trying to be faithful to the right and to God. I, myself, was baptized 20 years ago. I cannot say that I am a good Christian, but I am a Christian."

Says Husband Beat Her Daily for Three Months

According to the police and his neighbors Odoritz has been beating his wife every night for the past three months. He was arrested last night. Police Lieutenant Christopher Ford, who made the arrest, says Odoritz was choking his wife when he arrived.

IS HARD TO MIX

places were frigid. When Corry was reached this afternoon a couple of Prohibitionists of the town were at the station. One told Berry the opera house was engaged for another show. A chair was placed on the pavement by the Erie railroad station. From this platform Berry addressed about 25 people and about twice that number remained in the station, not bothering to go outside to ascertain what was doing. Castle did not even speak.

When the train arrived at Union City there was no one to meet the spellbinders. They had to hunt a hotel and it was three hours before the reception committee appeared. William Kneib, the Democratic chairman of this division, had to introduce himself to Berry. The candidate is so new in the Democratic party that he knows few of its leaders. This morning at Oil City he did not appear overly pleased when the hotel clerk told him the local "cold water" committee had not paid the bill.

Tomorrow Berry will speak at Meadville. It is to be a Democratic meeting and the "down-with-the-saloon" cry is to be dropped. He may address a special Prohibition meeting at St. Marys in Elk county. State Chairman "Jim" Hall has become so infatuated with the Prohibition campaign work that he would like to have a little of it in his home county.

FIRST BUILT IN RANKIN.

The First Methodist Protestant church of Fourth street and Kenmawr avenue, Rankin, will be dedicated tomorrow week. The building cost $25,000 and is the first Protestant church erected in the borough. The pastor is the Rev. George S. Sisson, D. D., who went to Rankin from Dunbar a year ago. The Rev. G. G. Sheppard of Washington, Pa., will preach in the morning; the Rev. George Shafter, D. D., of Bellevue, in the afternoon and the Rev. C. F. Swift of Beaver Falls, president of the Pittsburgh conference, in the evening. The dedicatory rites will be performed in the evening. There will be a week of special services following the dedication.

The congregation sold its church a year ago last summer to an Italian congregation and has been worshipping in a hall since.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER EXHORTS IN MEETING

Makes Strong Religious Appeal to Prayer-Service Attendants at His Church.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 29.—John D. Rockefeller, in his address at the prayer meeting at the Euclid avenue church tonight, told his hearers what to do to be saved. He made a strong religious appeal when discussing the promise of the covenant.

"It means the success of all who keep it," he said. "I believe the solution of many of the troublesome problems which confront us today—the affairs of business, labor, finance and even life itself—will be easy for us in the covenant which we keep.

"I cannot but believe the time is near when those on the outside of the church will see this. A great wave of religion is sweeping over the country. We see it everywhere. Religious joy appears wherever we turn. We, who have experienced this life, have no doubt that these signs we see are true signs.

"There is no line drawn by God. The doors are open. Rich, poor, high, low, laborer, employer—there is no difference. God calls for his children. The day is coming when the great, clear light of hope, that which is our very life, shall be consummated in eternity. Let us rejoice in the light of this hope."

ERIE NOW BIDDER FOR TERMINUS OF CANAL

Lake Cities Are Rivals for the Proposed Pittsburgh Deep Waterway to the North.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—An effort is being made by the business men of Erie, Pa., to induce the directors of the Ohio & Lake Erie Canal Company to change the route of this waterway so that the northern terminus will be at Erie instead of Ashtabula. If the new route should be selected the canal will extend up the Shenango valley instead of the valley of the Mahoning river. There is no material difference in the length of the two routes and the business men of Erie have indicated that they are willing to make some inducements to the canal company if they will select Erie as a terminus.

For the purpose of determining the feasibility of the Erie route and conferring with the business men of that city, President James H. Cassidy of Cleveland, who is in the city, announces that the directors of the company will make a tour of inspection over the new route next week. The party will visit New Castle, Youngstown, Erie and Ashtabula and other points with a view of determining which route is the more desirable.

JUDGE SUSTAINS THE DEMURRER

Chicago Packers Are Ordered to Plead Next Thursday Morning by the Court.

EXCEPTIONS BY DEFENDANTS

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Federal Judge J. Otis Humphrey today sustained the demurrer filed by United States District Attorney Morrison to the plea in abatement made by packers seeking to have indictments for alleged restraint of trade declared void. Judge Humphrey said he made his decision on broad grounds without taking into consideration technicalities which the government advanced against the plea in abatement.

After the decision had been given the defending attorneys tried to amend the fourth plea by the insertion of the word "for." This met with resistance from the district attorney, but the court promised that if the law was clear on the point he would allow it. The government is said to fear a trick in the insertion of the one word. The district attorney moved that the defendants plead to the indictment.

It was announced that a demurrer is to be filed by the packers, attacking the face of the entire indictment as far as defects and insufficient allegations are concerned. The defendants were ordered by the court to plead next Thursday morning, the pleadings to be taken up in argument before Judge Humphrey by the following Monday. In the meantime a bill of exception is to be prepared by the defendants to the ruling made by Judge Humphrey today. Exceptions were taken by all of the defendants to the court's ruling on every count in the plea. This was for the purpose of appeal after the trial.

One of the points in the pleading which attracted considerable attention and which the court declared had given him some difficulty, was in regard to the right of Judge S. H. Bethea to receive the return of the indictment. It was argued by the defense that he was sitting in the eastern division of the northern district of Illinois and received an indictment voted in the northern division of the northern district of Illinois. The district attorney declared that if the law of March 3, 1905, which created the position now held by the judge and also re-arranged the districts was construed against his contention there was no court and there was no judge and there was no return of the indictment.

The court surprised almost everyone in court when he read from President Roosevelt's message in the Congressional Record of last November, in which it is declared that Judge Bethea was appointed as a successor to Judge C. C. Kohlsaat, promoted from the district court to the circuit court. This promotion gave Judge Bethea the right to accept the return of an indictment voted in the old district.

The plea in abatement attacked the alleged secrecy maintained about the drawing of the grand jury. It was alleged that the names of the jurymen after they had been drawn were withheld from the defendants. This plea was supplemented by the declaration that it is the constitutional right of every man to know beforehand who is to try a case in which he is interested.

Another plea was that an unauthorized person, Assistant District Attorney Godman, had been in the grand jury and took stenographic notes; later these notes were transcribed and returned to the jury for its consideration.

CHANDLER GIVES TIMELY WARNING

Ex-Senator Tells of Dangers That Beset Passage of Railroad Rate Bill.

ASKS AID FOR PRESIDENT

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 29.—In a series of open letters to Edward A. Moseley of the interstate commerce commission, former Senator William E. Chandler of New Hampshire defines his attitude toward the Esch-Townsend rate bill, to come before congress at its next session, and calls to the attention of the commission some of "the dangers that beset the attempts to pass this bill, as they appear to him."

Mr. Chandler lays great stress upon the attitude of the railroad companies, and says the methods of defeating the measure to be put forward next winter will be by dangerous amendments or additions to the Esch-Townsend bill "under the guise of friendly improvements, but really as railroad tricks."

Mr. Chandler says further: "You cannot reasonably expect a law can be passed through both houses of congress which shall make a reasonable transportation rate, fixed by the commission, take effect immediately and remain in force until reversed by the court of review, when Mr. Samuel Spencer in behalf of the railroads, has announced they will not permit either of these two things.

Mr. Chandler further charges that $11,000,000 of capital, representing 25,000 miles of railroad, are arraigned against the president in his attempt to pass rate legislation. He also charges that by furnishing free transportation, the railroads will attempt to corrupt legislatures, congress and the whole state and national government.

Mr. Chandler asserts that lawyers, ministers of the gospel and newspapers are especially cured for by the railroads, notwithstanding that the system is grossly illegal and closes his last letter with an appeal to the American people to help the president. He says:

That the railroad managers believe they can seduce a president like this from a duty to which he has consecrated himself seems incredible, but such is the case. There are now no more threats and denunciations. The words are soft and coaxing and not loud enough to be heard very far distant. Shall he who is a leader and arbiter among the nations, the most conspicuous figure among all earthly rulers, who is to be forever historically associated with Washington, Lincoln, Grant, Garfield and McKinley, give himself with unseemly zeal and unbecoming effort to secure a new increase of power to a railroad commission to fix transportation rates against the opposition of the greatest existing money power in the universe, which has so much in the future to give or to withhold?

No doubt the railroad managers wish to take this benevolent president the object of their present attention and solicitude—up into an exceedingly high mountain, where they can show him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them. That through their persuasion he will falter in his efforts to perform with all the characteristic force of his nature any amendment of any, even the least, in his high office, will not be believed by the American people. But he needs all the help which the people can give to him against $13,000,000 absolutely controlled and directed for the purpose of defeating the president's proposition by Samuel Spencer and J. Pierpont Morgan and their associates, each one whispering: "All these things will I give thee if thou wilt fall down and worship me."

BURY MOTHER AND FOUR CHILDREN IN ONE GRAVE

Believed a Clew Has Been Discovered in the Brutal Texas Murder. Negro Under Suspicion.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

HOUSTON, TEXAS, Sept. 29.—The bodies of Mrs. A. J. Conditt, her 12-year-old daughter, and three sons, aged 8, 5 and 10, respectively, who were murdered yesterday near Edna, Texas, by a negro, were interred this afternoon in a single grave.

The discovery of a bloody adze with which the crime was committed, and a bundle of discarded clothing, found by bloodhounds a short distance from the scene of the tragedy, are the only clues left by the murderer.

However, as a result of suspicion against Hank Gibson, a 17-year-old negro boy who was working in a nearby field and who gave the first alarm, his home was searched and a table cloth with a bundle of bloody clothing was found concealed between the covers of a bed. If Mr. Conditt, the husband, is able to identify the articles, the negro will probably be lynched.

INSURANCE COMPANIES IN POOL FOR LEGISLATION

may have done some omission. It is a case of hindsight and not one of foresight. But my conscience frees me of my bond. I have been as good a director as I knew how to be, and I did my duty."

Mr. Schiff stated that he had no knowledge of what allotments of the stock taken in syndicates were made by James H. Hyde and associates. Using as a text the report of the Frick committee, which investigated the management of the Equitable society, Mr. Schiff was asked by the examining counsel to explain the operations of a syndicate in Union Pacific preferred stock. He asked permission to make the statement in his own way and then spoke emphatically and excitedly, rapping the table to emphasize his points.

Attacks State Superintendent.

He declared there had been unjust insinuations. He had told the state superintendent of insurance that when he said Kuhn, Loeb & Co. had sold $2,500,000 of Union Pacific preferred to the Equitable society he had circulated a false report, and Mr. Schiff said he stood by that declaration now. The Union Pacific preferred stock syndicate was not formed by Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and they never sold the stock to anybody. It was formed by E. H. Harriman, "for the purpose of getting a concentrated holding of Union Pacific stock."

Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the witness said, acted merely as a clearing house, purchasing the stock on the exchange and selling it to the subscribers at cost. It made no profit. The syndicate was for $50,000,000, of which nearly the entire amount had been acquired. Among the names furnished Kuhn, Loeb & Co. as participants was the name of James H. Hyde, individually, for $2,500,000.

"I have never known until the disclosures of the Frick committee," said Mr. Schiff, "that the Equitable had any share in that syndicate."

In the finance committee of the Equitable he voted for the purchase of the stock, but did not know then that it had been bought in a syndicate. He maintained that the purchase was wise, and that there was no better investment in the world than Union Pacific preferred. President Morton of the Equitable, he declared, had since refused to resell the stock at par, although the syndicate had tried to buy it back. Not until Mr. Hyde told Mr. Morton that he had transferred his holding to the society did any member of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. know it.

Dodges the Question.

Mr. Hughes asked if the purpose of the syndicate was to secure control of the Union Pacific, to which Mr. Schiff replied that he did not think it a question which he ought to answer. Anyone could draw his own inference.

The agreement which was produced showed that the syndicate was managed by Jacob H. Schiff, E. H. Harriman and James Stillman and it was agreed that the stock should be held for five years and not be sold by subscribers, but that the managers should be allowed to sell to a holding company. Mr. Harriman, he said, had secured Mr. Hyde's signature to the subscription for $2,500,000. He did not know to whom the securities went nor whether the Equitable society paid for them.

Mr. Schiff testified that the minutes of a meeting of the finance committee of the Equitable Life Assurance society, in February, 1903, were false in recording the purchase of $500,000 of Union Pacific preferred stock for "holding account." Mr. Schiff said he was present at the meeting and no such transaction was made. Asked if apart from what he heard at that meeting he desired to be understood that the Equitable records were false, Mr. Schiff said if such a transaction was made he did not hear it.

Hyde's Action Wrong.

Mr. Schiff expressed the opinion that it was wrong for James H. Hyde to participate personally in syndicate transactions. He did not know, he said, that Mr. Hyde had done so until these disclosures.

"The Equitable," said Mr. Schiff, "was at the mercy of one man—either Alexander or Hyde. It seems to me it was all Hyde. The vice of the entire insurance situation has been irresponsible power."

Mr. Hughes showed Mr. Schiff the testimony of James H. Hyde before the state superintendent of insurance, in which Mr. Hyde maintained that the underwritings of the Union Pacific was not a personal matter and that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. knew he was acting for the Equitable society.

Mr. Schiff replied that Mr. Hyde was trying to shield himself. As for Mr. Hyde's statement that one of the partners of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. had been sent down to the Equitable society to arrange the transaction, Mr. Schiff said it was not true.

"You did not regard this as a proper transaction for the Equitable to go into?"

"If I had heard that the Equitable thought of going into the syndicate I should probably have checked it."

Should Not Speculate.

Mr. Schiff was asked if he thought it advisable for an insurance company to invest in stocks to hold control of a railroad. He replied that the company should not control anything nor invest in common or speculative stock, but in dividend-paying, preferred stock.

In the statement which Mr. Schiff was permitted to make he declared it was untrue, as charged by the state superintendent of insurance, that the Equitable Life Assurance society bought Japanese bonds from Kuhn, Loeb & Co. at a loss to the society of 5½ per cent. He said there was no such loss and that the superintendent of insurance had fallen into error in computing the rate of sterling exchanged which fixed the value of the bonds.

He said further it was not true, as stated, that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. had monopolized the best financial business of the Equitable Life Assurance society. In the past five years, he said, the Equitable had bought $197,000,000 of securities and of these $33,000,000, or about one-sixth, were purchased from Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Furthermore, he said, the present value of securities sold by his firm to the Equitable, while he was a director, is $1,800,000 greater than the price paid for them.

In five years, Mr. Schiff said, his firm had sold $42,000,000 worth of securities to the Mutual Life Insurance Company and $31,000,000 to the New York Life Insurance Company. He asked if this looked like undue influence with the Equitable.

TWO HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Attorney Parker Receives Serious Injuries Just After Alighting from Car.

ANOTHER'S SKULL FRACTURED

Two serious automobile accidents occurred in the East End last night. Attorney T. S. Parker of 8826 Rippey street, was run down as he was crossing Highland avenue shortly before 6 o'clock, and George W. Richmond of 25 Alpha terrace, East End, was thrown out in a collision with a telegraph pole on Morewood, near Ellsworth avenue. His skull is fractured and he is lying at the East End hospital unconscious, with slight chance for recovery.

Mr. Parker had gotten off a North Highland avenue car at Rippey street and started across the car track to the sidewalk, when the right wheel of an automobile speeding northward struck him on the hip. As he was jerked backward by the force of the collision his head struck the cranking lever, which cut a great gash in his forehead, split open his face and nose and injured him internally. He was thrown a considerable distance in front of the machine, one wheel of which passed over his body before its speed could be checked.

Passing pedestrians ran to his assistance and he was taken home. Over three months ago Mr. Parker suffered an injury to his right leg, since which time he has been unusually careful in traveling about the city, so when he started around the end of the car he stopped to note if the track was clear before venturing across. Seeing no car coming he started across the track. As he reached the middle of the southbound track, the automobile, a four-seated Pierce arrow runabout, struck him.

The auto contained two men, one of whom said that he was Frank A. Griffin of the Columbia National bank, and that the automobile belonged to William H. Latshaw. The other occupant was the chauffeur, whose name was not learned. They drove away when, it is alleged, they were told Mr. Parker was not badly hurt.

At the time of the accident Mrs. Parker and her daughter were sitting on the front porch of their home awaiting the arrival of Mr. Parker, who was unusually late. Mrs. Parker was uneasy and had just remarked to her daughter that she feared some accident had befallen Mr. Parker. Just at this moment the daughter saw the carriage approaching and intuitively knew it contained her father, and said to her mother, "They are bringing him home."

At a late hour last night Mr. Parker was reported as resting somewhat easier, though still complaining of severe pains in his head and body.

Richmond and a man who told the police that he was Mr. Porter of Shady avenue were coming down Morewood avenue when their machine swerved to one side and crashed into a telegraph pole. Both were thrown out. Richmond alighting on his head. He was picked up unconscious and taken to the East End hospital in a passing automobile. Porter escaped with a slight shaking up and some minor bruises. At midnight the hospital authorities said that Richmond would probably die before morning.

LEWIS ASKS INCREASE.

Jail Warden Files Stated Case to Determine What Salary He Is Entitled To.

Edward Lewis, warden of the county jail, filed a stated case against the county to determine the salary he is entitled to. The salary of his position was increased by act of legislature in May last from $3,000 to $5,000 a year, but the prison board did not authorize the increase until July 1. In his statement he asks that he be paid at the rate of $5,000 a year for the months of May, June, July and August, but if the court thinks he is entitled to the increase only from the time the board took action, he asks to be paid at the increased rate for July and August.

The question arises from the wording of the act, in which "county jailers" are referred to, and the court is asked to determine whether the title applies to the warden, as he is known in this county. Either party reserves the right to appeal to a higher court.

BOOK-AGENT THIEF.

Asks Subscriptions for a Periodical, but Rifles Apartments.

The McKeesport police were notified yesterday of two robberies supposed to have been committed by a man about 18. The victims are Mrs. E. B. Zimmerman and Mrs. Annie Martin, who occupy apartments in the Normandie flat building at Fifth avenue and Sinclair street.

In the Zimmerman apartment the thief secured a gold watch and chain and some money that was lying on a dresser. A larger sum in a bureau drawer was overlooked. Mrs. Martin reported that two pocketbooks, containing $19.50, had been taken. She said she had been out shopping and met the young man leaving her apartments. He asked her to subscribe for a periodical. She discovered the robbery when she entered the room and made a search for the money.

NEW LOVER HASTENS TO HIS KATIE'S RESCUE

Katie Obrounovic was the defendant in a suit before Alderman Vierheller Thursday evening on a charge of false pretense. The case against her looked black for a time, but her most recent lover came to the rescue and paid her way to freedom. Paul Pavlinoscric of Beaver avenue was the prosecutor. He claimed he saved money enough to bring the girl from the old country. On the ship over she met and loved John Lauoskic. When they arrived in the Union station the Allegheny swain was there and gave the girl $60 to pay for her trousseau. He says Katie accepted the money but refused to marry. Then a fight broke in on him and he brought the suit. At a critical moment the new lover appeared with the $60 and the girl was liberated.

Bullet Wound Causes Death.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Michael Cevera of Hillsville, who accidentally wounded himself in the neck while cleaning his revolver this week, died this morning at the hospital here.

NEGRO'S BULLET CAUSES DEATH

Abraham Marks, Brutally Assaulted Near Swissvale, Dies in Mercy Hospital.

ASSASSIN STILL AT LARGE

Another victim was added to Allegheny county's blood-stained list last night, when Abraham Marks, aged 38, of 48 Linton street, died at the Mercy hospital from a bullet wound inflicted by two negro highwaymen on Thursday night, near Swissvale. The county detectives have learned nothing of the identity of the assassins.

Marks was a huckster and had been working all day in Braddock. Having disposed of his vegetables he was on his way home when held up by the negroes. One grasped the bridle of his horse and the other negro pointed a revolver at his head and demanded his money. Marks had $38 on him and refused to give it up. He engaged in a fight with the negro at his horse's head. He overpowered the negro and was punishing him when the second negro placed a revolver against Marks' groin and fired.

The wound rendered Marks helpless and he lay on the road until found later by a policeman and was sent to the hospital. The county detectives realize they will have a difficult task in finding the negroes, as the only witness who could have identified them is now dead.

Coroner Joseph G. Armstrong has set Monday at 1 p. m. as the date for the inquest into the death of Michael Kurharchik. He was shot at Wall borough on September 15 by Policeman James McAnally when, it is alleged, he was resisting arrest. The trouble is said to have started when Kurharchik attempted to enter a ball given by some Slavs without paying. The doorkeeper knocked him down, it is said, and McAnally happening along, arrested them both. He and Officer Miles Riley started for the lockup with the two men, but had not gone far before a crowd of the Slavs who were following set on them and beat them up with clubs. Riley was knocked down and then thrown into a creek nearby.

When McAnally saw how things were going it is said he started to run and several shots were fired after him, so he alleges. Turning around he says he saw Michael Kurharchik fire at him and he then pulled his revolver and fired at Kurharchik, fatally injuring him.

John Heins, aged 24, of 2111 Main street, Sharpsburg, died yesterday afternoon at the Mercy hospital from injuries received Wednesday afternoon while working at Rankin. He was employed as a laborer by the McClintic Marshall Construction Company, and his skull was fractured by a block falling on his head.

John Williams, a negro, was held by the coroner's jury yesterday afternoon to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of murder of Mrs. Mamie Quinsey, September 16, at 1209 Locust street. Williams held the woman to him and shot her through the heart, killing her instantly. After shooting the woman he also shot her step-son, Charles Quinsey, twice. The latter recovered. Williams confessed to the shooting.

ATTORNEY CHARGES CITY DETECTIVE WITH ASSAULT

Lawyer Joseph Crown Alleges That Officer Edward McGough Struck Him Without Cause.

City Detective Edward McGough has been held for court on a charge of assault and battery by Alderman Reilly, on information made by Attorney Joseph Crown of 140 Diamond street, who alleges that McGough assaulted him two weeks ago in Frankstown avenue. McGough is out of the city at present, and will give bail when he returns.

Attorney Crown alleged that he was walking with a friend in Frankstown avenue and remarked as he passed McGough: "There is a man who does not like me." Crown and his friend walked on and he alleges that Detective McGough followed him and struck him. Attorney Crown says that he did not resist the attack.

McGough is well known as a city officer. He was appointed on the recommendation of Supt. of Detectives McQuaide about three years ago.

Policeman Peter Watters of the Forty-third street station house will be given a hearing this afternoon before Alderman Groetzinger on a charge of aggravated assault and battery on information made by Edward McCarthy. The informant alleges the officer struck him on the head with his fists on September 9, and insists the assault was unwarranted. Watters furnished $500 bail for a hearing.

DIVORCED COUPLE REMARRY AND ANNOUNCE THE EVENT

Cards were received in Braddock yesterday announcing the marriage, September 11, of Frank E. Louis and his divorced wife, Emma Hoffman of Homestead. They were first married 22 years ago at Homestead, but in 1898 they separated and the wife made no defense to an action for divorce on the ground of desertion. They have a son, Thomas, aged 18, who is a draughtsman in Philadelphia. Recently Mr. Lewis and his former wife became reconciled and their second marriage took place at Elm Grove, W. Va.

BONAPARTE HAS NO FAITH IN SENATOR GORMAN'S PROMISE

Declares Democratic Bill Aimed at Negroes in Maryland Would, If Successful, Also Be Used to Disfranchise White Men.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BALTIMORE, MD., Sept. 29.—Secretary of the Navy Charles J. Bonaparte is out in an interview today slapping at Senator Arthur P. Gorman's statement in the Democratic convention, which declared negro disfranchisement the only issue, and the senator's statement that he will retire if the Democrats win.

When asked what he thought of Senator Gorman's promise that if the Poe disfranchising amendment was passed he would not again be a candidate for public office, Mr. Bonaparte laughed and said:

"To my mind this leaves the situation just where it stood before the statement you quote was made. In judging a platform we must first consider the men who make it. If their past justifies believing what they say, then their platform will be taken at its face value; if their past is such that any reasonable and well-informed man will hesitate to believe what they say, then their platform shows, not what they will do if successful, but what they wish the voters to think they will do, so that they may be successful.

"Now, it is simply trifling with a serious subject to pretend the source of this platform commands confidence. It comes from the very men who in 1895 and repeatedly during the years which followed, falsified or attempted to falsify, the people's will at the polls; who once gave us a governor and more than once gave us a mayor we had not elected; who are universally believed to have instigated and are known to have profited by gross frauds at the polls, and shameless perjury by election officers.

"They tell us, in substance, that this amendment, whatever it may seem on its face, is really advice to nullify and violate with impunity a part of the federal constitution, and nothing more. Their record shows they wish and mean to disfranchise any man, white or black, who will not vote as they dictate, and the amendment they offer us enables them to disfranchise anybody at pleasure. To ask the people to believe that if such men have such powers, those powers will not be exercised, is to insult the people's memory and common sense."

Patient Escapes from Hospital.

James Carroll, living in Lacock street, Allegheny, escaped from St. John's General hospital late Thursday night and, clad only in pajamas, traveled down to Avalon, where he was found at 4 o'clock yesterday morning by Dr. D. A. Dean. Carroll became delirious and broke a window through which he crawled. He was returned to the hospital suffering somewhat from exposure.

We have watches for men and for women, for boys and for girls, and we are making a special showing of Elgin and Waltham Watches for lower prices than they have ever been sold for in these cities. See what sort of a watch we'll sell you for $13.50, for $15.00, for $20.00. Those prices are just mentioned at random—watches much lower, watches costing a great deal more money.

We do all manner of Watch Repairing, and guarantee the work. Our charges are very modest.

As a note, we beg to say to those interested that there is quite a little bit of silverware left from the special sale that has been going on throughout the week, and that if a third or more less in price is of any interest to you, you can probably find today a piece or several pieces that will meet your fancy.

Saturday, September 30, 1905.

Keeping a lighthouse is said to be one of the loneliest of occupations, but the janitor of the local Democratic headquarters would probably not find it much worse than his present job. Yesterday an air of silent melancholy, a sense of having seen livelier, if not better days, hung about the building. The janitor, doomed to solitary confinement, tiptoed about the deserted rooms trying to make friends of the mice and spiders. Where were those who once were wont to make the place ring with merriment and disorder? Gone to see Mr. Bigelow, of course. Where else should they be?

After what have seemed interminable delays, there is at last a possibility of some action in the case of the indicted beef packers who have been blocking the wheels of justice at Chicago with all kinds of technicalities. By his decision yesterday Judge Humphrey sustained the legality of the grand jury which found the original indictments. Now there is to be a further delay of 10 days until the argument on the demurrer which has just been filed is finished, and then, the district attorney thinks, the long-awaited trial may begin. The packers, thus far, have not appeared exceedingly anxious for a speedy "vindication."

When the name of "Damsite" was first suggested to the postoffice department as the designation of a new town in Texas, the department was inclined to demur, but as it has been explained that the locality to be served by the new office is known locally as "Damsite" because engineers are building a large irrigation dam at that point, some concession has been made to environment and legend. There is nothing profane in the name, not one bit more than if it were suggested to name the new postoffice "Millsite," because there was a mill in the neighborhood. There are worse names in our postal vocabulary than "Damsite."

The news from Poland that bribe-taking officials of Warsaw have adopted a new schedule of prices, showing an average increase of 100 per cent, reads like a comic opera situation, but the humor will not be apparent to the oppressed people of Poland who foot the bills. The increase is not due to any higher valuation placed upon their honesty by officials, but is attributed to the paucity of opportunities for receiving bribes, due to recent disturbances in Poland. The effrontery of the officials should surprise no one in view of the corruption which honeycombs all classes of officialdom wherever the Russian manner of doing business prevails.

It was George Ade who said the director serves the same purpose as the parsley on fish: a purely ornamental one. Testimony taken in New York yesterday by the insurance investigating committee indicates a modicum of truth underlying the humorist's remark. Examination elicited the statement from one who had been a director himself, that such officials are generally dummies, without authority, but with the privilege of giving advice to the real powers, the executive officers. Directors who really direct might be a startling innovation in the conduct of some great corporations, but they would supply what appears to be a decidedly dangerous deficiency.

Application for a charter by a local association, formed for the study of the Irish language, calls attention to the increasing interest in the revival of Gaelic, both in this country and abroad. Ever since the famous statute of Kilkenny, in 1367, forbidding the use of the Irish language, determined efforts have been made to suppress the native tongue of Ireland. Gaelic received another serious blow on the establishment of the National schools, in 1833. About 12 years ago the Gaelic league was formed, and a few years later the movement spread to this country. Viewed purely from a literary standpoint, the idea is a fascinating one, for the old language contains treasures which lose much in the translating.

The President's Return.

When the average man returns to his office after his summer vacation we speak of him as "getting back to work." The phrase cannot be applied to our president, for he has never been away from work the whole summer long. His "vacation" has been a busy one, filled with altruistic efforts that have been crowned with success. Today he returns to Washington, where plans have been made to give him a warm welcome home.

The significance of the reception to be extended to President Roosevelt lies in its informality. It is just the sort of reception that might be called Rooseveltian, because in its freedom from staid conventionality and prosiness it resembles the man. There is to be no parade or set speechmaking. Ceremony will be absent. President Roosevelt's neighbors will simply gather in force, some two hundred thousand or so of them, exhibit their great admiration for the most popular president the nation has ever had, and tell him they're glad to see him back. It is entirely possible that Mr. Roosevelt will thank his friends for their kind reception. It is announced that he will not, but Mr. Roosevelt has a habit of doing what is unexpected.

Foreigners speak of our president's popularity as "phenomenal." To them it may so appear, but it is not an ephemeral popularity or one springing from any but entirely natural causes. The nation admires and respects not only the man in the office, but the man himself, the type of all that is best and strongest in American citizenship.

The Business Situation.

The ending of the third quarter of the year has developed in the financial centers a money flurry which resulted yesterday in the marking up of the call loan rate in New York to 7 per cent. This rate has been equalled but once before this year, and its appearance possesses usually far more importance than it does at this particular time. The immediate occasion of the big rise in the rate was the occurrence simultaneously of an exceptionally large number of important financial transactions involving so many millions of dollars that it has been difficult to secure the needed cash.

It has proved itself, however, simply a case of difficulty, not of impossibility. The effect of the condition upon the values of the securities quoted in the New York stock exchange has been practically nothing, for there has at no time been any belief except that the condition was merely temporary. In a week from now, it is believed, the call money rate will be down below 4 per cent, and so far as money conditions are concerned, all will be tranquil again.

The transactions which have produced this situation in the money market of the country are of a size which but a few years ago would have been considered enormous and have attracted widespread attention. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company issues $100,000,000 of bonds and the Pennsylvania Company, its western interest, pays off $50,000,000 of notes and increases its capital stock $20,000,000. The Santa Fe system carries forward a great financial operation. The United States pays another installment of many millions upon the Japanese bonds taken here. Dividends amounting to upwards of $27,000,000 are distributed. Yet the whole series of transactions takes place now with no mention, scarcely, except in the financial departments of the newspapers. The deals are accepted as routine affairs.

There has been every evidence that the banking interests of the country, as shown by the New York group, are behind the present upward movement in the stock market and do not believe that values have as yet reached a point at which they are dangerous. Their attitude is based on the widespread prosperity of the country. The corn crop, one of the greatest factors in the nation's prosperity, is now practically all out of danger from frost. The yield indications are maintained and a high percentage will be of merchantable quality. The seeding of wheat is progressing favorably and winter wheat has every promise of a good start. The marketing of the northwest wheat crop has progressed well, the railroads having forwarded about twice as many bushels as at this time last year.

The country is receiving an increasingly large supply of wealth from its mines of every kind—gold, silver, lead, copper, iron and coal. It is finding in its own borders a growing market and in the world at large purchasers for its surplus.

In the industries which especially influence this section of the country, conditions could not well be better. The purchases of pig iron, Bessemer, basic and foundry, are on a scale which could not have been attained before the recent additions to the operating stacks were made. In the finished lines of iron and steel the demand is far ahead of the capacity of the mills for immediate delivery. In the coal trade prices are more favorable and the market is growing broader with the coming of colder weather. The oil operators are now in better shape than at any time this year, the prices of crude petroleum in the various fields having again been advanced by the purchasing agencies.

The Poe Amendment.

While Senator Arthur Pue Gorman is able to secure from the Maryland state Democratic convention unanimous indorsement for the infamous Poe amendment to the Maryland constitution, there is no such unanimity in the Democratic party of that state. There is a Democratic Anti-Poe Amendment association working against the measure and it has just published the names of more than 160 Democratic lawyers who oppose it, because, as lawyers, they understand it will disfranchise voters, white and black, at the will of machine heelers.

Mr. Gorman pretends this amendment is intended to prevent "negro domination." As a matter of fact it provides for the disfranchisement of any citizen who fails to construe any selected clause of the Constitution "to the satisfaction" of a petty election officer. Not to the satisfaction of a judge learned in the law, but to the satisfaction of a Gorman ward heeler. Not even to the satisfaction of a police magistrate, a la Moke, but to the satisfaction of a plug-ugly, elected for the sole purpose of disfranchising anti-Gorman voters—and there is no saving appeal. This amendment, if adopted, would put it in the power of an ignorant election officer to disfranchise the chief justice of the Maryland supreme court on the ground that he could not "satisfactorily construe" a portion of the Constitution. The amendment will not pass.

Science and the Baby.

We had occasion the other day, in commenting upon the coming congress of parents at Brussels, to deplore the feminine tendency to regard man as lacking in knowledge of child training. Fresh confirmation of this unjust attitude is found in the suit brought by the wife of an Iowa college professor for a judicial separation from her husband, on the ground that the professor is cruel to their baby. The professor, we learn, is an enthusiastic believer in the benefits to be derived from "child study," but until recently he has had no baby of his own upon which to experiment, relying upon borrowed babies, which is not nearly so satisfactory. The other day, returning from a shopping expedition, Mrs. Carlson was surprised to find the baby suspended, head downward, by a rope from the ceiling, and the professor standing by, watch in hand, to note how long the child could cry at a time without stopping to take breath. Mrs. Carlson, with a total disregard for the scientific value of the experiment, interfered with unnecessary violence. When, a few days later, she discovered the professor proving the theory of man's descent from the monkey by trying to teach the baby to climb a tree in the backyard, she regarded it as additional grounds for a legal separation and went home to live with her mother, taking with her the infantile object used in the scientific investigations.

The professor's dignified answer to the allegations of cruelty will appeal to the logical masculine mind. He takes the high ground that babies are meant to be something more than mere repositories of food. They have a distinct though passive mission to perform in the interest of scientific progress. While it is too much to hope that in its present stage of enlightenment the judiciary will uphold this opinion, we trust the lack of intentional cruelty will be kept in mind when considering the case of the over-enthusiastic professor.

A naval musician writes to a New York paper complaining that he enlisted to stand on the poop deck while the battle raged, cheering the brave sailormen with martial strains, but instead he stands on a hot deck and plays for the grimy swearing men who coal the ship. When that job is finished, he is ordered with oaths to doff his natty uniform and help clean ship. It is evident the esthetic side of life on the ocean wave has been vastly exaggerated.

The Rev. John L. Scudder, pastor of the First Congregational church of Jersey City, says he will back Jack Harvey to throw any man of his weight in America. We don't know just who he is, but we should like to hear from Harvey Parker's pastor on this.

In each hat he sells a Chicago merchant pastes a copy of the Ten Commandments. In no city in the country, with the possible exception of New York, would the opportunity of perusing them for the first time be appreciated so much as in Chicago.

King Edward is alleged to have told Mr. Whitelaw Reid that the American people are the grandest ever. The British lion keeps wagging his tail so vigorously in token of friendship that nobody can get a chance to twist it.

The law in Russia requires that all productions in the public press intended as jokes be labeled as such. The adoption of this plan by the "Post" would relieve its readers of much intellectual exertion.

"When the church gets after the corrupt politicians," says a Denver clergyman, "they will have to pass the buck and throw up their hands." New terms are creeping into theology every day.

The verdict of "justifiable suicide" rendered by an Oklahoma jury in the case of a married man's demise, illustrates the danger of entrusting judicial matters to prejudiced minds.

The composer of "Under the Old Apple Tree" has been sued for divorce, but the perpetrator of the epic referring to the paternal animosity toward labor has not yet got his deserts.

The Cincinnati men who advocate the mixing of beer, champagne and whisky may resemble some of our country contemporaries in having "patent insides."

European rulers are said to be exchanging notes on the subject of how to avoid assassination. Wear Pittsburgh armor plate suits.

Kaiser Wilhelm says every nation should have more men like M. Witte, but he doesn't go so far as to offer the gentleman a job.

In Mr. Bryan's absence there is the danger that the various warring factions of Democrats may unite, and unite on the wrong man.

When the concert of Europe gets to practicing on the tune "Disarmament" there will probably be some horrible discords.

The chief ground for Democratic objection to rate regulation seems to be that it will be done by the Republicans.

Nobody has yet suggested Schenley park as the last resting place for the frigate Constitution.

Preliminary football practice has thus far been gratifyingly non-productive of obituary items.

Up to date M. Witte has not been a conspicuous sufferer from "diplomatic lockjaw."

CLAIMS A CONVERT IN WALL STREET

Search of Financial District, However, Does Not Reveal Missing Millionaire.

By FRANK A. PARKER.

(By Private Wire to The Gazette.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Rev. Dr. C. L. Goodell, leader in the Wall street revival movement, said in an address in Springfield, Mass., that on the day the preachers exhorted sinners to repentance beneath the windows of J. Pierpont Morgan's office, a millionaire left his ticker and became a convert. Interest in the possible identity of the man who turned from the ways of the wicked led to a careful census of the street today to discover if possible a missing millionaire. The process of elimination failed to uncover the converted financier. It couldn't have been J. P. Morgan, because Mr. Morgan is busy at his office, devising ways of keeping off the witness stand at the insurance investigation. Mr. Perkins is equally out of the question, because he is holding on to his several jobs, and dodging a fusillade of demands for his resignation. James R. Keene and George J. Gould have not sent their tickers to the cellar, but are fighting each other for control of a railroad. James Stillman is hard at work every day in Mr. Rockefeller's National City bank and he listens to the ticker. Mr. Rockefeller himself was converted long ago. And he keeps his eye on Standard Oil securities, and it's the same with all the other big men on "the street"—they are still "tending their knitting," so to whom can Mr. Goodell refer?

Jerome Has 'Em Guessing.

William Travers Jerome is the problem of the campaign to both Tammany and the Republican machine. This much was admitted today. Neither party wants him, but, notwithstanding the promises alleged to have been made to bury him, each is now afraid the other is going to put him on its ticket, and the tension on the two leaders is said to be getting severe. The Republican county convention assembles October 13, and the Democratic convntion the day following. Probably the Republicans are the most uneasy, as their chance comes first, and they do not want it. But if they fail to put the district attorney on their ticket at their convention. They feel reasonably certain Tammany will. Tammany is uneasy because the Republicans have the first deal.

Another Great Office Building.

Plans have been filed with the bureau of building for the 28 story railroad office building on the block at West street from Cedar to Albany streets, for the West Street Improvement Company, of which Gen. Howard Carroll is president. The main edifice will be 306 feet high and will have an ornamental tower 98 feet high, which will give the building a total height of 404 feet. This tower will be equipped with a large illuminated clock with a dial 28 feet in diameter and will have a mansard roof adorned with pinnacles.

Back to His "Home, Sweet Home."

Although sentimentalists and some others have maintained that a longing for home is a disease, it has remained for immigration authorities to officially recognize it as such. Claus Seeman, a 21-year-old six-footer reached this port in the steerage of the Grosser Kurfurst Tuesday. He had been brought up in pastoral surroundings, and the tumult of the city made him long for his quiet German home. He made his way back to Ellis Island, where his case was diagnosed as nostalgia, and believing this would debar him from making a living the authorities ordered him sent back.

Hall of Records an Expensive Job.

According to Comptroller Grout, the Hall of Records will cost the city, all told, $7,836,146 73. This total includes $5,539,-156 35, cost of building; $355,457 38, architects and engineers' fees; $1,473,227, cost of site; and $868,306, interest on the cost of site from the time the city took title until the award was paid. These figures were given to the board of estimate today, in response to a request for information, apropos of an application for $1,329,-000 needed to complete and furnish the building. All but $1,500,000 of the total, Mr. Grout reported, was authorized in 1887.

Lots of Pretty Irish Maids.

In the year ending this month 1,762 young women immigrants were sheltered at the Mission of Our Lady of the Rosary, the oldest of the State street homes for the care of the newcomers to the country. The number included 41 from England, 16 from Scotland, 1 from France, and 1 from Newfoundland. The rest were Irish girls, and every county of Ireland was represented on the list. Connaught and Munster led numerically. No charge for board or lodging is made at the mission, and each inmate is allowed to stay there until she can find employment or make arrangements to go to friends or relatives.

Jewish New Year Begins.

The Jewish year 5666 began at sundown tonight and opens the festival of the new year, which lasts 10 days. These are known as penitential days, and close with the Day of Atonement. They are religiously observed by all orthodox Jews. The festival, as a whole, commemorates, besides the beginning of a new year, the giving of the divine commandments to the Jewish people, and includes the only holy days in the Jewish year—New Year day or Rosh Hoshonah and day of atonement or Yom Kippur.

Newsboy Would Be Alderman.

Mack Kelman of No. 556 East One Hundred and Thirty-ninth street, the richest newsboy in New York, has announced he will run for the nomination of alderman in the Thirty-sixth district. Kelman started in business six years ago and has made in that time $15,000 selling papers. He is said to have over 1,000 regular customers, and he relies on their support to give him the nomination.

Will Be Equal to the Suggestion.

Chicago reports that a man out there has had five inches of lead pencil removed from the appendix. That man is evidently a graduate of the Chicago University. SOME GOOD STORIES OF PITH AND MOMENT

Gossipy Chat and Anecdote of Entertaining and Instructive Character.

Senator Davis of Minnesota told this one concerning Bishop Whipple, the venerable "St. John of the Frontier," who served the people long and well. In a passenger coach going into Dakota territory the bishop sat reading the morning newspapers, and in the second seat before him sat an infidel who was loudly proclaiming his antipathy to the Bible and everything believed by religious people. He said that he would dare to meet any prophet, priest or pope in discussion, and loudly proclaimed: "If I could meet old Bishop Whipple, I'd ask him at least one question he couldn't answer."

"I am old Bishop Whipple," said the venerable apostle to the Indians, as he dropped his newspaper, "ask me your question now."

The fellow was startled, but soon recovered, and said: "Well, bishop, as saving souls is in your line, I'd like to know if you can tell me the straight road to heaven."

"That is very easy, indeed," responded the bishop with his saintly smile: "Turn to the right, and go straightforward."

And there was no further discussion, nor further questions propounded.—Los Angeles Times.

He Got the Pretext.

John M. Collins, Chicago's new chief of police, was talking to a reporter about his work.

"My work would be more difficult," he said, "in fact it would be impossible, were it not that every man in the world is a policeman. Every man watches his brother man, and knows that his brother man watches him in turn. Thus the work of us professional Lecoqs is kept down.

"The proof of this thing is that if A sees in his friend B signs of dishonesty, his own moral tone relaxes, and he tends to become dishonest himself. Thus:

"There was a suburban grocer who took his clerk to a saloon one day after closing time and purchased a good many glasses of beer. Then, after he began to feel talkative and trustful, the grocer said:

"'Look here, John, I owe $2,000.'

"'Yes, sir,' said the clerk. 'I know it.'

"'I have $2,000 in the safe.'

"'Yes, sir.'

"'And the store is empty. The stock is completely run down. I think it is time to fail, don't you?'

"'I do,' said the clerk. 'I certainly do.'

"'But I need a pretext,' said the grocer. 'Hang it, I can't find a pretext. I'll tell you what you do, John. You think this matter over and let me know tomorrow morning any suggestions as to a pretext for failure that may come to you during the night.'

"The clerk promised to do so, and the two men separated.

"The next morning on his desk the grocer found this note from John:

"'I have taken the $2,000 and gone to South America. It is the best pretext you can give your creditors.'"

Snollygoaster Ham.

A friend of Snollygoaster Ham, the Georgia lecturer, says that several months ago that fun-maker was in Chicago and had the misfortune to have his purse stolen, leaving him stranded. Ham was known at the hotel and managed to get the proprietor to stake him until he got a check from the lecture bureau. The Snollygoaster was feeling sore when he ambled into a restaurant and ordered dinner, asking the waiter what was "teal."

"Teal, sir; that's duck," was the answer.

"Duck?"

"Yes, sir."

"Got wings?"

"Yes, sir."

"And could it fly?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, I don't want any, then. Anything that had wings and could fly and didn't fly out of this pickpocket town I don't want to have anything to do with."—Charleston News and Courier.

A Horrid Bird.

A lady went to a bird fancier for a parrot. She complained that the last bird he had sold her used very bad language.

"Well, madam," said he, "here is a bird that I can rely on; it was brought from abroad quite lately, and the whole voyage it was in the ladies' cabin, and never heard the tailors talk at all."

The lady took the parrot. A week after she brought it back to the shop, visibly angry.

"Surely that bird did not swear?" said the man.

"No, it did not swear, it was perfectly silent until my 'at home' day, and then, when the ladies were all talking and drinking their tea, it made the most awful sounds, and in a low and excited voice it said, 'Stewardess!' . . . then more eagerly, 'Stewardess!' . . . and then more sounds. Oh! it was too dreadful for anything. Take it, oh, pray take it! I never want to see a parrot again."—London Tit-Bits.

All Field Wanted.

The Rev. Minot J. Savage, on being introduced to speak before a large Boston assembly a short time since, told a story about Eugene Field, and vouched for its truth, because he heard Seth Low tell it. Field sat down at the table in a New York restaurant, and presently was approached by a voluble waiter, who began to rapidly enumerate the articles upon the menu—"Coffee, tea-chocolate, ham'n'eggs-beef-steak-mutton-chop-fishballs-hash'n'-beans," etc. Field looked at him with fixed eye and solemn visage, and said with marked deliberation, "I want none of these things. All I desire is one orange and a few kind words."

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

"I know why so many bridal couples go to Niagara," remarked the Smart Young Man.

"I've often wondered," said the Sweet Young Thing.

"It's because love is blind," chuckled the Smart Young Man.

"So am I, for I don't see that," timidly replied the Sweet Young Thing.

"Because everybody on a honeymoon there has a cataract in both eyes. See now?"

And the Sweet Young Thing laughed heartily, for she did not know that other Smart Young Men had said the same thing many, many times before.—Baltimore American.

Interesting Happenings About the People Who Are Traveling.

John F. Magill, vice president of the Traffic club, was banqueted last night at the Hotel Henry by seven of his friends, who are sorry to see him leave Pittsburgh, but are glad that he goes to New York to hold an important position with the new Italian steamship company, which is to run steamships between New York and Naples. The menu was quite elaborate, the piece de resistance being a huge beefsteak as big as a door mat and three inches thick. This steak was ordered especially from Chicago and must have been cut from the biggest and tenderest steer in the stock yards there. Every man at the banquet made a speech, and all wished Mr. Magill success in his new venture. He will probably resign the vice presidency of the Traffic club.

Good Auto Time from Mercer.

E. Buchan, proprietor of the Hotel Waverly, Mercer, arrived yesterday with his wife in his automobile, having come the distance from Mercer in three hours and 15 minutes. As Mercer is 67 miles from Pittsburgh this is considered excellent time on such roads as there are between here and Mr. Buchan's town. The trip averaged 20 miles an hour, and Mr. Buchan says the roads were not as good as he expected them to be. Mr. Buchan is famed for having made the trip to St. Louis and back with his wife in an eight-horse power machine.

No Fog in the Country.

Passengers coming into Pittsburgh on the railroads last evening were talking of the fog which enveloped them just outside the city limits. Out in the country the sun was shining, they said, but suddenly they entered a wall of fog and they knew they were near Pittsburgh. Through trains on the railroads were not delayed, but local trains were troubled by the fog.

Had the Time of Their Lives.

The Pennsylvania State Editorial association has been having the time of its life in Pittsburgh this week. Anybody can have a good time in Pittsburgh whenever he can get there, but the business men of the city, appreciating the fact that the editors represented a large constituency in all parts of the state, took hold of the matter of entertaining them in a way characteristic of the city. They made a fine success of it, and one of the results will be the establishment of closer relations between business and industrial interests of Pittsburgh and people in different sections of the commonwealth. The costs attaching to these efforts are insignificant when compared with the results.—Philadelphia Press.

Found Noah's Mint.

J. T. Stewart, an eccentric herb gatherer, while searching for roots and herbs for big concerns by whom he is employed, found in Montgomery county a small specimen of a bush called camel's mint. He says it is the kind of mint that Noah took into the ark to administer to the camels when they became ill. He says it is peculiar to the plains of Asia, and in all his experience never found it before on this hemisphere.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

It Should.

If the political liar could be eliminated from our campaigns, it would be a long step toward cleaner politics. The man who lies to obtain a business end gets the contempt of all respectable persons. Why shouldn't the same rule hold good in politics?—Bellefonte Republican.

THE MESSAGE.

A leaf that hung upon a tree
Turned red one day, then fluttered free
And fell, a bit of gleam and glow,
Down in a brooklet's rippling flow.

The waters carried it along
Through silent woods devoid of song
Below the ferns, then in the sun,
Until the river's waves were won.

Then on and on the leaf was flung
Where willow branches swept and swung,
A bit of crimson manifest
Upon the silver river's breast.

It danced upon the glancing waves
Past silent places full of graves,
Through meadows and through barren downs,
Through lonely ways and busy towns.

It floated on continually
Until it reached the booming sea,
And there it flashed upon the flood
Amidst the foam, as red as blood.

And far upon the tide it went,
A message to some sailor sent,
A message brought him on the foam—
A sweet reminder of his home.

He took the leaf from out the deep
And put it in his breast to keep,
And in the darkness as he slept
He dreamt of home and, dreaming, wept.

He saw the woods, the trees and all,
The glory of the golden fall,
As wide he floated on the deep—
He kissed the message in his sleep.

M. WITTE IS GIVEN SAME HONOR AS CROWNED HEAD

Kaiser of Germany Congratulates Russia on Possession of Such a Man—New Title Is to Be Bestowed by the Czar.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

BERLIN, Sept. 29.—The National Zeitung's St. Petersburg correspondent has telegraphed to his paper as follows:

"M. Witte told me today that Emperor William said to him: 'I accord you the same honor as I would to a crowned head. You have accomplished extraordinary things and I congratulate Russia on the possession of such a man. If monarchs had many such true servants then one would think better of monarchs.'

"The German emperor was described by M. Witte as most animated and kind."

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 29.—M. Witte left St. Petersburg today by boat to meet Emperor Nicholas, who with his family, is prolonging his yachting trip in the Finnish gulf. The meeting will take place at Bjoerke, the infrequented little fishing port where the historic interview between Emperor Nicholas and Emperor William took place just before the peace conference and where the imperial yacht Polar Star is now lying. M. Witte had not expected when he arrived here to be received in audience until the emperor's return to Peterhof, but yesterday evening he received the imperial command to come today on board a vessel which was sent for him, his majesty desiring to hear immediately from his envoy's lips an account of his important and successful mission.

M. Witte dined with the emperor and empress this evening and received notification of the honors in store for him. It has been reported that he will be made a count and receive the Order of St. Andrew, with which Presidents Faure and Loubet were decorated, but a more substantial honor may be his nomination to the post of chief of the cabinet of ministers, the details of which are now being elaborated, and which would make him the first subject in the realm with the right of naming all the ministers except the court, war, marine and foreign office ministers.

Deliberations regarding post-bellum finances are already in progress. M. Witte yesterday discussed with Minister Kokovsoff the information gathered by M. Witte in his interviews with American, French and German financiers. The first fruits probably will be the conversion of the short-term loan of $75,000,000 negotiated in Germany last spring. Nothing definite concerning a further loan for the repatriation of the prisoners of war and the replenishment of the Russian money circulation has yet been decided upon.

BIGELOW LAUGHS OVER STRIKE OF METER MEN

Says They Only Took Vacation, Return to Work Without Securing Single Demand.

"The plumbers were not on a strike. They were just taking a vacation."

This was the way Director Bigelow joked yesterday over the end of the strike of the plumbers employed by the city to install water meters. The men have been on strike for a month.

Director Bigelow said yesterday the officials of the plumbers' local union have signed an agreement allowing the men to return to work, after keeping them out of employment for a month, the union permitting the men to go back without having a single one of its demands granted by the city. Among the things they had insisted upon was a semi-monthly payday, instead of being paid monthly, and also that the city pay their car fare to and from work.

"I don't see what they went out on a strike for," said Director Bigelow, laughing over the matter. "They did not get anything they struck for. They will start work again on Monday and we will begin putting in more meters."

Director Bigelow makes the statement that he will continue to install water meters despite the assertion made by Controller Larkin recently that Mr. Bigelow had agreed not to put in any more meters. Director Bigelow said the controller was not authorized by him to make such a statement. Since the director talked water meters with the controller the latter has discontinued his crusade against meters.

HAVE SWORN BEFORE GODDESS TO BOYCOTT BRITISH GOODS

Inhabitants of Bengal Are Intensely Resentful Against the English Government for an Attempt to Impair Their Nationality.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CALCUTTA, Sept. 28.—Fifty thousand Bengalis assembled at the Temple of Kalighat have sworn by the Goddess Kali to boycott British goods as a protest against the partition of the province of Bengal. The administrative work of the province, according to the views of the home and Indian governments, had grown to such unwieldy proportions as to necessitate a division of the labor, hence the partition of the province into two lieutenant governorships.

The Bengalis are intensely resentful at what they characterize as an attempt to split the population and impair the Bengali nationality. At scores of meetings throughout Bengal the people have pledged themselves to support the boycott, which has now received the sanction of the priests.

The scene at the Temple of Kalighat, the greatest in Bengal, was striking when the immense assemblage took the oath: "In the holy presence of the Goddess Kali, not to use foreign goods, buy articles in foreign shops when available in native shops or employ foreigners on any work that can be done by our countrymen."

The high priest then placed a mystic vermillion symbol on the forehead of each of those who took the oath.

The foreign firms are already feeling seriously the effect of the boycott.

FIND MAN'S BODY FLOATING IN LAKE ERIE

Mysterious Affair Being Investigated—Companions of Dead Man Under Arrest.

ERIE, PA., Sept. 29.—While he was supposed to be in Pittsburgh looking for work the body of Frank Schonbein was floating around in the waters of Lake Erie. It was found yesterday afternoon, but not identified until this morning because of the story told by two youngmen, Louis Wiltz, aged 19, and Frank Carrick, aged 23, and both may be arrested on a murder charge after the coroner's jury holds an inquest early next week.

County Detective Frank Watson, who is investigating the case, says they have already been arrested for the larceny of a sailboat from H. Larson. They were rescued by the tug Elma last Friday, after the sailboat was overturned, but at that time they said nothing about having had a companion who was drowned.

Schonbein had been their close companion for some time and when the boat went out past the lifesaving station, it was seen to carry three young men. So far as known there were no marks of violence on the body and both Carrick and Wiltz persist in denying that they knew anything of the whereabouts of Schonbein.

What seems strange is that Carrick is said to have told Schonbein's brother that the dead man had started to Pittsburgh and had told him to draw his wages, $8, due from the Anchor Time warehouse on the docks where he worked and this money was taken out on Monday. Wiltz claimed that he was working for Schonbein's father when the boat was taken out, but this the dead man's father had denied. Coroner Schmelter ordered the body buried today after selecting jurors for the inquest next week.

SAILOR CHARGED WITH PASSING RAISED BILLS

Government Officials Cause the Arrest of a Man Who Is Thought to Have Defrauded Merchants at Erie.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ERIE, PA., Sept. 29.—Three secret service officers connected with the United States detective force were in the city today investigating the raising and passing of Canadian currency on saloonkeepers and merchants here.

CANAL DOVER, O., Sept. 29.—Governor Myron T. Herrick was the guest of honor at the twenty-fourth annual picnic of the Tuscarawas County Pioneer association which was held at Gnadenhutten today. The visit of the governor was not for political purposes and in the speech which he delivered in the John Heckewelder Memorial Moravian church he did not once touch on politics, but confined himself entirely to a discussion of the achievements of the pioneers of Ohio.

He was enthusiastically greeted by a crowd of 2,000 persons, a reception committee accompanied by 200 school children meeting him at the railroad station. From there he was escorted to the church where an informal reception was held. The governor was taken in an automobile to the scene of the Christian-Indian massacre, committed by Col. Williamson's United States army troops in 1782. Mayor Charles G. Gutensohn of Gnadenhutten delivered the address of welcome, being followed by Prof. E. P. Geiger, superintendent of schools at Canal Dover. Judge A. W. Patrick of Tuscarawas spoke on "The Pioneers." The Rev. W. H. Rice, pastor of the Moravian church at Gnadenhutten, closed the day's program by briefly recounting the Indian massacre. A big political meeting at Uhrichsville was addressed by the governor in the evening.

BUFFALO, ROCHESTER AND PITTSBUR

DEMOCRATS CALL BIGELOW LEADER

Desert Their Own Headquarters, Now Recognized as Mere Annex to Citizens' Party.

CLARK'S CHANCES ARE GONE

There is an air of abandonment about the Democratic headquarters in Third avenue, ominous of the fate in store for James A. Clark, one of the candidates for county commissioner on the fusion ticket. Yesterday even the loafers who used to hold down chairs in the anteroom and try to "touch" the candidates were conspicuous by their absence. Like rats they have deserted the sinking ship.

The lively air about the Citizens headquarters was in great contrast to the quietude reigning at the Democratic place of business. Downstairs presumed workers filled the room, discussing politics and keeping a weather eye open for candidates who might come in. Upstairs Secretary James W. Clark appeared to be busy in consultation with the chairman, Senator W. S. Woods, and lieutenants. Several clerks made a pretense of having something to do. Altogether the onlooker would have derived the idea that the Citizens actually expect to win.

Result of Bigelow's Success.

These contrasting conditions are the direct result of the capture of the Democratic organization by Director E. M. Bigelow and the downfall of the Democratic leader, Col. James M. Guffey. They spell defeat at the coming election for James A. Clark. Clark's only hope was to have held out against the proposition to permit the Citizens to put Plummer at their head of column on the official ballot, throw fusion overboard and run for county commissioner on a straight Democratic ticket. As the Democrats always cast three-fourths of the votes for the fusion ticket Clark would have received the next largest number of votes after the Republican candidates, thus making him commissioner, for the minority is entitled to one commissioner.

Now, with the Republican candidates sure winners, Clark has to scheme to have his supporters vote for him only and not for Alexander Dempster, his running mate on the fusion ticket, and here he will be met with a counter-scheme of the Citizens, for the payroll will be instructed to vote "plumpers," that is, ballots with Clark's name eliminated, so that Dempster may be the minority's successful candidate.

What the Mayor Really Meant.

It is now believed that Mayor Hays was misunderstood when he is alleged to have said the payroll would give 5,000 votes for Berry, the Democratic candidate for state treasurer, and that he meant that city and county employes would put in 5,000 straight tickets for Dempster alone, not voting for Clark at all.

W. S. Guffey has received letters from Democrats, who say that they will aid him in a movement to punish the men guilty of forcing Mr. Guffey's brother, the colonel, to give way to the Citizens in their insistence that they would indorse Plummer instead of Berry. These Democrats realize that with Bigelow instead of Guffey in the Democratic saddle, and Controller Larkin, erstwhile their idol, and Francis X. Barr, once a Democrat, running along at Bigelow's stirrups cheering for Plummer, the Democracy is galloping to destruction, and therefore they are willing to join a movement intended to save their party organization from a smash-up.

Discussed Allegheny Situation.

Mayor Hays, Senator Woods, E. M. Bigelow, R. H. Jackson, J. D. O'Neil, City Solicitor Stephen G. Porter and Director of Public Works E. J. McIlvain of Allegheny, met in the mayor's office yesterday. They talked over the situation, especially in Allegheny, and discussed whom it would be advisable to name chairman of the Citizens organization in Allegheny. Controller Larkin could not be present. He left town yesterday.

T. J. Shaffer says he has received a letter from Gen. Dick asking him to make arrangements to stump Ohio for Gov. Herrick, who is a candidate for re-election. Shaffer's term as president of the Amalgamated association will expire Monday. He says he has accepted Dick's invitation.

STEWART TAKES A HAND.

District Attorney Will Make It Hot for Criminals Who Escape Lightly In Police Courts.

District Attorney Stewart is determined that hereafter all cases which come before the police magistrates in which misdemeanor or felony is shown be sent to court for trial. As soon as he can arrange it he will have a careful watch made at the hearings. He knows of many cases which slip through the police magistrates that should have been sent to the grand jury, and where he discovers such cases in the future he will have an information made and see the case is properly disposed of.

County Detective Robinson said the authorities should have a man at every hearing, as he knows positively many men guilty of larceny and robbery get away by the payment of a fine after evidence has been adduced which is sufficient to hold them for trial by jury. He believes the police magistrates are not primarily to blame, for he says they get instructions higher up.

Supt. Wallace said he would be glad to give the assistant district attorneys seats beside the police magistrates, but would not stand for any person who does not know the law.

Massive Stage Spectacle.

A staff of mechanics has been in this city all week adapting the stage of the Nixon theater to the requirements of the big beauty spectacle, "Humpty Dumpty," which will be seen there next Monday with its big cast and ensemble, and all the beauty and magnitude of scenic effect and superb costumes which have made these Drury Lane spectacles stand pre-eminent and alone among productions that appeal to the eye.

Too Much Worry.

Worry kills more people than disease. It turns our hair gray; draws wrinkles on our face, places lines of care on our brow. We worry because we have too much to do. We worry because we have nothing to do. We worry about our friends. Make our friends wonder at our impatient and irritable nature, and if we don't take the trouble to learn the great secret we will worry ourselves into the grave. Worry is caused by a diseased stomach. Lactonene Dyspepsia Tablets cure it. Get them today. A contented mind is surely yours—the greatest blessing man or woman can have. "Ask the Druggist."

IS RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT FOR THE SEVENTEENTH TIME

ROBERT S. LATIMER.

Mr. Latimer was elected president of the Western Pennsylvania Christian Missionary society for the seventeenth consecutive time at the annual convention of the society in the Knoxville Christian church yesterday. He was first elected to that position at the Connellsville convention in 1888, and has held office continuously since that time. He was born in County Derry, Londonderry, Ireland, and is a lineal descendant of Hugh Latimer, the martyr; a portion of his family going to Ireland with Cromwell. Mr. Latimer came to America in 1881 and landed on the day of Garfield's inauguration. When he assumed the presidency of the society there were four Christian churches in Allegheny county, which have grown in number to 28, while the membership has grown from 7,000 to 17,000 during the same time, in the same territory.

Westinghouse Employe Will Bring Fund of General Information to New Schools.

George H. Follows, M. E., connected with the Westinghouse Company, has been appointed to an assistant professorship in charge of the mechanical drawing department in the school of applied science of the Carnegie Technical schools. George H. Follows, M. E.

auspices of South Kensington, and won the Whitworth scholarship. He served his apprenticeship with Messrs. Follows and Bate of Manchester, completed his apprenticeship and was made manager of the works.

Prof. Follows came to this country in 1892 and has been employed by the Brown & Sharp Manufacturing Company, Providence, R. I., with the Pond Machine Tool Company, of Plainfield, N. J., with Albert H. Emery designing gun carriages and with the Brown Hoisting and Conveying Machine Company of Cleveland, Ohio, since which time he has been employed by the Westinghouse works, to develop a system of standardization throughout their various departments. For two years he was chief inspector and lecturer at the Westinghouse evening drawing school. He is the author of a number of technical papers, which have appeared in the trade journals and is now writing a drawing dictionary, which is being published in serial form by the Engineering News.

The appointment of Mr. Percy L. Reed, of Allston, Mass., as instructor of mathematics in the school of applied science is also announced. Mr. Reed was born in Lakeville, Mass., and was educated at Lehigh university, graduating in 1898 with the degree of C. E. He has since then been employed by the Boston & Albany railroad in various capacities, including rodman, draughtsman, instrument man, inspector, etc. He is at present employed by the Conners Bros. Construction Company of Lowell, Mass.

COSTS TROLLEY LINES 4 1-2 CENTS A PASSENGER

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—In the convention of the American Street and Interurban Railway Association today the allegation was made by W. C. Ely, president of the parent body, that it has yet to be demonstrated a general fare of five cents is not the proper amount. Mr. Tingley showed figures that the average cost of carrying a passenger is 4.4 cents.

TO HAVE COMMERCIAL EXHIBIT FOR CHINESE

Secretary Taft Gives Approval to Plan to Capture Oriental Markets for Americans.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—A permanent industrial commercial exhibit will soon be established at Shanghai, China, by Baruch Cerf of that place, who is here perfecting arrangements. It is claimed by the promoters the exhibit will enhance American commerce by properly introducing and advertising goods among the Chinese merchants. Concerning the projected exhibit, Secretary of War Taft said in an interview, prior to his departure for Washington:

"The project to establish a comprehensive exhibit of American goods at Shanghai is one that commands my hearty commendation. If it should be put through it will be, so far as my information goes, the first intelligent effort of American merchants to go after the business of the orient.

"Situated as are American merchants, and possessing, as we believe, the best output in the world, they are nevertheless being hopelessly outclassd in the quest for the immense commerce of China and other oriental countries. It is high time something was done after the order of our chambers of commerce at home, so that the oriental merchants can have presented to them the kind of goods they want in the way they want them.

"Americans are not sending the right goods over there, and what they do send is not put up in packages calculated to attract the merchants. Native dealers get no opportunity to inspect our products. Any such plan as this exhibit should be supplemented by a reorganized consular service, and to this end merchants should get after their congressmen and compel action on this most important subject. Our present equipment is pitifully inadequate. Germany has ten times as many attaches at Shanghai as the United States."

Mr. Cerf will visit commercial bodies in the east to acquaint manufacturers with the plan of exhibit.

SOME ONE MOVES DOOR AND REHEARSAL ENDS

"The Earl and the Girl" met "The Girl of the Golden West" last evening, and David Belasco was embarrassed. The manager playwright had been rehearsing the latter production all day on the stage of the Belasco. It was a scenic rehearsal and Mr. Belasco was asked to vacate at 6:30 o'clock to permit a change of scene for the evening production. He forgot the time during his interest in the rehearsal, but the stage hands didn't. They began moving the scenery. When Blanche Bates and Robert Hilliard reached a point where a dramatic exit was to be made through a certain door, the door was gone. "Where in heaven's name is the scenery?" cried the famous playwright. The truth slowly dawned, and the rehearsal was officially declared concluded.

SUPPOSED BLANK CARTRIDGE PUTS BOY IN HOSPITAL

Howard Schawhan, aged 15, of 2615 Jane street, is at the South Side hospital suffering from a revolver wound in his left thigh. He was accidentally shot yesterday afternoon by Raymond Beckfield, another boy, of Becks Run. The two boys, accompanied by John Stucy, Steve Bartley and Harry Wilson, started for Homestead. They reached a vacant lot just outside the city line, and sat on a bench to rest. Beckfield pulled out a 22-caliber revolver and began shooting. He thought the weapon contained blank cartridges. At the second shot Schawhan was shot in the left thigh. He is not badly hurt.

ANOTHER BLACK FRIDAY; PITTSBURGH IN GLOOM

Half Million Human Smoke Consumers Walk the Two Cities and It Was Hard to Draw the Color Line.

On Friday, September 24, 1869, America had its first Black Friday. At this time Jay Gould and James Fisk, Jr., attempted to consume all the gold. The second Black Friday also occurred in September, the 19th, in 1873, when scores of financial institutions were consumed in a whirlpool of disaster. The third Black Friday also occurred in September—yesterday—when 500,000 human smoke consumers walked the streets of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, surrounded in gloom.

Watches were anxiously consulted as Pittsburgh arose yesterday morning. There was considerable doubt as to whether night had really blended into morning, lights twinkled during the forenoon, wherever lights were possible. The weather bureau denied all responsibility and declared that a fog was not prevailing, but that not sufficient wind prevailed to carry the smoke off the city. So everyone smoked. It was hard to draw the color line at any time during the day.

The baseball game was called off "on account of darkness," before it was begun. The players found it impossible to find their way around the bases without a lantern—much less keep their eyes on the ball. Pedestrians coughed, sputtered and gasped out words of complaint, because of absorbing an over-abundance of coal dust.

As night came on, the relentless smoke, knowing itself to be unseen, made itself felt by the presence of most repulsive odors that prevailed in the lower part of the city and along the rivers. With no opportunity for upward escape, the aroma from neighboring soap factories and other institutions of uncongenial atmosphere hovered over the city and assisted in driving the grime-bespecked residents to an early bed.

ORPHANS MEET; LARKIN ABSENT

Failure to Attend Explains Mystery of Controller's Sudden Disappearance from City.

COUNTY TICKETS DISCUSSED

"He's not an Orphan now. He's elected," said Director Bigelow of his political ally, Controller Larkin, and the truth of this was demonstrated last night at a reorganization of the Orphan party leaders in a downtown business office, which was conspicuous by the absence of the controller.

The majority of the men who fought under the Orphan banner in common council at the beginning of the present city administration were present, but Controller Larkin, who was always a notable figure at such gatherings previous to his re-election last February was not there and his former colleagues said they were unable to explain his absence. The truthful answer to the query as to why the controller was absent could be found in Director Bigelow's statement that Mr. Larkin is no longer an Orphan and does not participate in the deliberations of that party's managers since he was re-elected. Previous to his re-election Mr. Larkin never failed to attend the meetings of the Orphans, rain or shine.

Last night he found it convenient to be out of the city. He departed some time yesterday and at his office in the City hall it was announced that he had gone "east." His office force was unable to give any reason for his sudden disappearance. No business of importance connected with city affairs or the controller's office is known that could compel the controller to go out of the city in such haste. The opinion last night among Orphans and others was that the controller had reached a sudden decision to take a trip when he was invited to attend the meeting of the Orphans last night to reorganize their party for the present county campaign.

They claim the controller preferred to be absent when they met rather than remain in the city and absent himself from the meeting, thus openly avowing he had deserted the Orphans and confirming what Director Bigelow had said of him.

W. H. Stevenson, W. C. Reitz and others who were present last night refused to give out any details of the meeting. Developments in regard to the county campaign and candidates for county offices were promised for the near future, and it is probable that the Orphans will declare themselves soon in regard to the opposing tickets. Those present at the meeting were W. H. Stevenson, W. C. Reitz, Dr. G. W. McNeil, W. B. Wolfe, Gebhardt Sahner, J. K. Wymard and Frederick Beehner.

MAINTAINED NEUTRALITY WHILE IN VENEZUELA

Bermudez Asphalt Company's Former Manager So Testifies in the Suit of That Government's.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

READING, PA., Sept. 29.—The testimony of J. L. Drake in the suit of the Venezuelan government against the Bermudez Asphalt Company, was heard here this afternoon. John D. Lindsay of New York, conducted the examination. Mr. Drake testified that previous to starting for Venezuela on July 20, 1901, as manager for the asphalt company, he received positive instructions from President John M. Mack and also from General Francis V. Green to observe strict neutrality. Mr. Green calling his attention to the pending revolution.

"Were these instructions carried out?" asked Mr. Lindsay.

"Yes, absolutely. No violations of neutrality occurred during my management, which continued from August, 1901, until August, 1902. I was compelled to discharge Dr. Manuel Clements Urbeneja, who it was alleged had engaged in a plot with the enemies of President Castro."

OPPOSE ASSESSMENT.

Police Object Paying for Floral Emblems for J. E. Hull, Son-In-Law of Superintendent Wallace.

The city policemen are complaining about the assessment made on them for floral emblems placed on the casket of John Earl Hull, a son-in-law of Supt. Wallace, who was killed in a brawl by Joseph Paroli, in Grant street, on September 3. The policemen were assessed 15 cents each and they do not think it was warranted, as Hull was not a member of the force.

Wallace denied he ordered an assessment made. Assistant Superintendent Kennelly said he asked that each policeman donate 15 cents for the floral tribute to Supt. Wallace's son-in-law, but they were not compelled to subscribe unless they desired. A committee consisting of Patrolmen Thomas Paisley, John J. Boyd and Samuel Free had charge of securing floral decorations for Hull, and two designs were bought by Inspector McElroy and Acting Inspector Gray. Assistant Superintendent Kennelly said any police officer who did not care to contribute would not be forced to do so.

MRS. BURNHAM OBDURATE; HUSBAND GOES TO JAIL

Clifford D. Burnham had to return to jail yesterday although he pleaded with his wife for leniency before Alderman J. V. McMasters on a charge of desertion and neglect. Burnham is an actor and was playing at a local theater when arrested on Wednesday night. Mrs. Anna Burnham, the wife, alleges that her husband left her three years ago and contributed nothing toward the support of herself or her 11-year-old boy. Burnham had his manager at the hearing yesterday and they made an attempt to settle the case, but could not come to an agreement with Mrs. Burnham.

MARRON FIGHTS TO FREE A GIRL

Says Jennie Henry Is In Jail Because of Police Persecution in Allegheny.

SUE WILLIAMS TALKS AGAIN

Attorney John Marron yesterday made a motion for a writ of habeas corpus to secure the release from jail of Jennie Henry, who was arrested last Sunday morning by the Allegheny police and sent to jail for 20 days. The case is to be heard in common pleas court No. 1 this morning.

The girl was formerly an inmate of a house in East Robinson street, Allegheny, run by Mrs. Sue Williams, who was principal witness for the commonwealth in the trial of Capt. James Wilson of the Allegheny police. When Mrs. Williams was forced out of the business the girls who had lived with her sought residence in other resorts in the First and Fourth wards. Two of them went to a house in East Lacock street and last Sunday morning the police entered the place and arrested them. Both were charged with being inmates of an immoral resort, and each was fined $5 and costs or 20 days to jail by Magistrate Abernathey.

The Henry girl was unable to pay the fine and went to jail. Mrs. Williams called upon Mr. Marron Thursday and told a story involving the Allegheny police. Mrs. Williams says that the patrolmen in the lower wards have orders to hound the girls who formerly lived with her. By this means, she declares, the police are seeking revenge for the testimony given by Mrs. Williams.

Some of Jennie Henry's friends sought to have money enough collected from women running houses in the wards to secure the girl's release from jail. According to Mrs. Williams they were told that the police had warned them not to have anything to do with girls who had been with Mrs. Williams, or their houses would be raided and closed. For this reason all were afraid to render any assistance, although several expressed willingness to advance the money if there was no danger of detection.

The Henry girl is young and in poor health. At the hearing of the case this morning Mr. Marron says he will charge that the conviction of Jennie Henry was illegal and without cause, and was simply a job to cause trouble for a girl who was formerly an inmate of Sue Williams' house. Mr. Marron has taken steps several times to have the decisions of Magistrate Abernathey reversed and in each case has been successful.

SOCIETY APPRECIATES THE MUSIC OF WAGNER

Vast Audience Attends the Exposition Concerts—Opportunity to Get a Gold Watch This Evening.

Society was out in force at the Exposition last evening, replacing the thousands of school children who thronged the big buildings in the afternoon. It was Wagner night, with Creatore wielding the baton. There was no doubt of the appreciation of the vast audience.

Signor Charles Granville, the New York baritone soloist, was in the pink of condition last evening, and his voice was so pleasing that he was encored several times. He has a commanding appearance on the stage, while his voice is of particular sweetness and clearness, each note being defined. He has a voice which has the capacity to fill the immense auditorium at the Exposition.

For this afternoon Creatore has a number of selections of lighter order on the program. Among the numbers will be Thomas' gavotte from "Mignon," Herbert's "Serenade," selections from "Floradora," Marengo's ballet music, "Excelsior," and Creatore's own march, "Columbus." Signor Pierno will give a coronet solo, the prize song from "Die Meistersinger."

A gold watch will be given at the Exposition this evening to the lady holding the lucky number. This number has been deposited with T. J. Fitzpatrick, manager of the Exposition. The number is in a sealed envelope, placed in a vault of the Exposition society, and will be opened by Mr. Kirkpatrick at 10:30 o'clock this evening. The winner will be announced from the watch booth in the main building. The lady holding the ticket bearing the number corresponding with that in the envelope will be given a beautiful watch, displayed upon the card at the booth. Should the party holding the lucky number not be present when the announcement is made, the watch will be awarded to the next highest number held by a lady in the Exposition. Ladies only will be given tickets, and no lady employed in, or in any way connected with the Exposition, will be permitted to enter the contest.

The program for this afternoon follows:

WIFE BETRAYS GANG OF THIEVES

C. D. Miller, Cement Contractor, Convicted of Larceny After Quarrel With Woman.

COOMBS GUILTY OF MURDER

Charles D. Miller, a cement contractor of Avalon, who is charged with being a member of a well-organized band of thieves which preyed on the residents of Avalon, Bellevue and Ben Avon last summer, was convicted in criminal court yesterday of larceny and receiving stolen goods. Miller's wife, who quarreled with him, told the story to the authorities, which led to the discovery and conviction. His wife and two brothers were indicted with him.

Miller was convicted on the specific charges of stealing a corrugator from Mathew Mohoney and some table linen from the residence of E. J. Giffings.

Cornelius Coombs, the negro charged with shooting to death his boarding house mistress, Mrs. Mary E. Dickerson, was found guilty of murder of the first degree. Coombs did not exhibit any emotion and appeared indifferent to his probable fate.

Other cases were: Morris Shiverman, receiving stolen goods, convicted; Frank McGraw, aggravated assault and battery, pleaded guilty, sentence suspended.

James D. Wilson, receiver of the Solid Steel Tool and Forge Company, secured an extension of his receivership until January 1, subject to the sale of the plant. He has made large profits and believes he can make more money by continuing to handle the plant as receiver.

Criticises Life Insurance Policy.

H. K. Snyder filed an affidavit of defense to the suit of M. S. Marks to recover on a check given to pay a premium on an insurance policy for $5,000. Snyder says Marks represented the policy in the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company as more favorable to the insured than any usually written in this country. He says it is less favorable than many other policies. He claims Marks told him the business of the company had increased in 1904, but he discovered the business had decreased $6,000,000; that the company did not have a reputable financial standing and that its right to do business had been taken from it in Canada and Massachusetts.

Judge Kennedy dismissed the bill in equity filed by Norah E. Wingenroth against Edward H. Dellenbach and others. The plaintiff sought to have the defendants declared trustees of certain property in the Third ward, valued at $20,000. Mrs. Wingenroth was the owner of the property and in 1903 deeded it to Dellenbach. She claims she did not understand that she was deeding it away when she signed the papers giving Dellenbach title. Judge Kennedy in his opinion finds that the defendants have a good title to the property.

The will of George H. Gallaher leaves to his son, Harry B. Gallaher, $500 and bequeaths the balance of his estate to his two daughters or their heirs. The testator says that he does not want any secret societies to have anything to do with his funeral and desired that he would be buried in his full dress suit, with the least possible expense. The estate is valued at $25,000.

Three Divorces Are Granted.

Decrees were handed down in the divorce case of John M. Irvine against Frances Irvine, granting a divorce on a charge of infidelity; James Shaw, from Ann Shaw, on a charge of desertion, and Annie E. Short from Stephen B. Short for desertion and cruelty. R. B. Petty was appointed a commissioner in the divorce case of Laura Thompson against Maurice Thompson.

In the United States district court the appointment of a receiver was asked for the confectionery firm of Follte Brothers by attorneys representing the creditors, who filed a bankruptcy petition against the firm on Thursday. The attorneys asked also that the suits against the firm be enjoined, as the stock might be interfered with. The store is now closed and the stock is perishable. The court said an order would be made in the latter request, but it would consider the appointing of a receiver.

D. F. Henry and wife filed an appeal to the supreme court in the suit against Sarah L. Black, the Union Realty Company and others over the sale of the Hotel Duquesne property. An appeal was also filed in the case of Frederick W. Ballafield and others vs. Milton Shangenhaupt.

Judge Brown presided over juvenile court and listened to tales of wrongdoing of about a dozen youngsters. Most of them were charged with petty offenses and were ordered returned to their parents by the court.

Road Supervisors Explain.

A. M. Harbaugh and E. K. Speer, road supervisors of Kennedy township, filed a return to the writ of alternative mandamus granted on the petition of A. P. Clever to require them to show cause why they would not open a road adjoining Clever's property. They say their bondsmen notified them not to spend money on the road, as it was to be improved by the county commissioners, the court having approved the plans. The order of court to which the supervisors were directed to open the road, they aver, was cited against their predecessors, and in view of subsequent action they believe they would be going against public interest and endangering their bondsmen.

Mary J. Snively sued the A. R. Budd Coal Company to receive $5,000 for 4,000 tons of coal taken by the defendant company from her land.

Suit was brought in the United States circuit court by J. S. Ferguson for H. J. Curl of Kansas City for $25,000 damages against the Colonial hotel. He alleges he was permanently injured in an elevator accident.

Petitions in bankruptcy were filed by August Jonas, proprietor of the Crystal Mirror works of Kittanning, who gives his liabilities as $51,432.95 and his assets as $76,400, and James Elsman, a harness maker of Freyberg, Clarion county, whose liabilities are $806 and assets $1,484.90.

HEAR SENATOR FLINN IN THE BOULEVARD SUIT

Gives Expert Testimony in Shuff Case to Show Impossibility of the Cherry Alley Route.

The Voters' Civic league sprung a surprise on the commissioner and defendants in the Shuff case yesterday by subpoenaing Senator William Flinn as a witness. He was on hand promptly and seemed to think he had very little business as a witness in this case. The senator was very prompt in responding to the subpoena and arrived before any of the lawyers or other witnesses in the case. A. Leo Weil, George W. Guthrie and W. B. Rodgers arrived shortly afterward, but owing to the absence of one of the attorneys in the case the hearing was commenced later than usual, Senator Flinn being on the stand most of the session.

The senator was used as an expert witness, and it is said declared the loop through Cherry alley was not practicable. The senator had a good-natured talk with the attorneys about time, and was promised that each side would do all they could to assist him in getting away as quickly as possible.

The examination was confined almost exclusively to the senator's knowledge of the construction of street car lines, and told of the contracts the first of Booth & Flinn had taken for the construction of such lines. The senator went into details, explaining why the building of the line through Cherry alley was not possible, owing to the narrowness of the alley and the danger attending the running of a street car through the thoroughfare. The charges of fraudulent influence in securing the passage of the ordinance through councils was not touched upon in the examination of this witness.

John A. Murphy, who cast his vote against enacting the ordinance, was summoned by the lawyers about noon, but owing to the fact that the examination of C. S. Crawford was not concluded, Mr. Murphy will be placed on the stand today.

Junior Class Wins Rush.

The junior and senior classes at the Oakmont High school came together in a class rush yesterday afternoon, which resulted in a victory for the juniors. Later in the afternoon the football game between the two classes resulted in a senior victory by a score of 15 to 5. In a short time a cane rush and flag fight are scheduled between the two classes.

The new steamer is 700 feet long, of 77 feet beam and 54 feet deep. Her gross tonnage is 25,000, her displacement 42,500. Her engines are of 17,200-horse power, and her speed 18 miles an hour. She can accommodate 4,000 persons.

PUNXSUTAWNEY HONORS OLD BRER GROUNDHOG

Weather Forecaster Ridgway of Pittsburgh Is Made a Member of the Now Famous Groundhog Club—Holiday for All.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM JOHN P. COWAN, Staff Correspondent.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, PA., Sept. 29.—Col. Frank Ridgway, forecaster in Pittsburgh for the United States weather bureau, tonight was formally initiated into the Punxsutawney Groundhog club. The ceremony took place tonight in the local Elks' rooms at the close of the seventh annual good weather convention, of which Col. Ridgway was the guest of honor. The initiation was held behind closed doors and the rites date back to the age of Pliny. It was enough to hold Ridgway for awhile at least.

A fairer day never dawned in Jefferson county, and at noon when the hunters started for Canoe Ridge, 70 nimrods mustered at the call of Col. William M. Fairman, the nester of all the weather prophets. It was a most successful hunt, and when the chef announced the al fresco dinner, 16 groundhogs had been captured. Two of the marmots will be taken to Pittsburgh tomorrow by Col. Ridgway and ill breaded and roasted were served on the board with sandwiches, salads and other delicacies.

The club originally consisted of seven prophets, but now the membership has been increased to 25. W. A. Jordan is president and Capt. Lemon Chambers remains as one of the principal field marshals. All the best people of the Jefferson county metropolis took part in the ceremonies, and Punxsutawney enjoyed a holiday.

The festivities closed tonight with a toast to Brer Groundhog and this quotation from Clymer Freas' poem:

"Their hams and broth do sattate
The clubman's maw and greasy pate,
And here's a toast lest we forget,
Their patron saint, the old Gazette."

PRISONER'S FAMILY IS PROMINENT IN MERCER

Man Accused of Theft of Speer Diamonds Is Said to Be Jackson B. Thorn.

The arrest in Montclair, N. J., of John B. alias William Thompson, proves to be of signal interest in Western Pennsylvania. The prisoner turns out to be Jackson B. Thorn, a member of a prominent Mercer family and well-known in New Castle, where he filled several clerical positions. Thorn is wanted in Pittsburgh for the alleged burglary of the home of Joseph McK. Speer, Beechwood boulevard, April 5, last. Diamonds valued at $3,000 were stolen, among them Mrs. Speer's wedding ring.

Mr. Speer, accompanied by City Detective Edward B. McGough, went to Montclair recently and visited the prisoner. McGough claims to have identified the prisoner as the man who robbed the Speer residence. Mr. Speer and the detective were in New York yesterday endeavoring to recover some of the stolen diamonds, it being thought they had been pawned there.

A telegram from New Castle states that while a resident of that city Thorn was familiarly known as "Jack." He was a vocalist of ability, sang in church choirs and moved in good society. His New Castle friends were shocked something over a year ago when it became known that a warrant had been issued charging him with issuing checks on a bank in which he had no funds. He left New Castle then and the trouble was adjusted. For a time he lived in Youngstown, O., then came to Pittsburgh, and then went east.

PHILIPPINE CUSTOMS ARE DECREASING

MANILA, P. I., Sept. 29.—The aggregate custom collections here for fiscal year ended June 30, 1905, were $6,814,910 and for the entire Philippine islands, including Manila, for the same period, $8,-269,444. This shows a gradual decline in customs receipts in those islands—the total collections at Manila for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904, being $7,140,-803, and for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1903, being $7,451,245.

Hereafter permission is given the students to smoke at the table after 6 o'clock in the evening.

BURGLARS ATTACK HUCKSTER.

Three Masked Men Hold Up a Gardener and Leave Him Unconscious.

ALTOONA, PA., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Howard Smith, a huckster of Osterburg, Bedford county, while returning home from this city, where he had disposed of a large quantity of truck, was held up by three masked men on a lonely road near Newry and robbed of the proceeds of his marketing, nearly $200, and a gold watch.

Smith was commanded to dismount from his wagon, when he was struck across the eyes with an iron bar, and it is believed he has lost the use of his eyes. Early this morning Smith was found lying on the road unconscious, and he is now in a serious condition.

YEAR 5666 BEGINS AS SUN GOES DOWN

Orthodox and Reform Jews Observe the Annual Event in Their Synagogues.

MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

"Wish you a happy New Year" was heard frequently on the streets last night, for with the going down of the sun began the Jewish year 5666.

Orthodox and Reformed Jews alike observe this date. Special services were held in all synagogues. In the Eighth street temple of the Reform Congregation, Rodeph Shalom, the rabbi, the Rev. Dr. J. Leonard Levy, spoke last night on "Looking Backward," and this morning will discuss "Looking Forward." Rabbi M. Fried conducted services in the Tree of Life synagogue last night and Rabbi A. Ashinsky conducted the celebration in the Beth Jacob synagogue. Yom Kippur, or the day of atonement, begins on the evening of October 8, and is a fast day. The observance of the event continues until the festival of the conclusion on October 21.

Beginning Sunday the month of holy rosary will be observed in Roman Catholic churches. The devotion to the Immaculate mother is closely observed, especially by Pittsburgh Catholics.

The new First Congregational church of McKeesport, Evans avenue and Irwin street, will be dedicated tomorrow with three special services. The principal speakers will be the Rev. W. A. Duncan of Syracuse, N. Y.; the Rev. Charles A. Jones of Hackensack, N. J.; the Rev. R. G. Newton of this city and other local clergymen. The Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden of the national council of the denomination is expected to attend.

The congregation of the Observatory Hill Christian church, Allegheny, will celebrate the 12th anniversary of the dedication of that church and the ninth anniversary of the pastorate of the Rev. John A. Jayne with special services tomorrow. The celebration will continue one week with various local clergymen participating nightly.

The Rev. Austin W. Mann will administer communion to members of St. Margaret's deaf mute mission in Trinity Episcopal church, Sixth avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. In the evening he will translate the full service in St. Matthew's church, Homestead, into the sign language for the benefit of the deaf mutes who may attend.

A new Sunday school will be organized tomorrow afternoon under the auspices of the First English Lutheran congregation of Grant street in the Altruda preparatory school, Fifth avenue, Shadyside, where the school will be regularly each Sunday afternoon hereafter. Horace W. Bikle will be superintendent, and he is receiving encouragement from many families of the Grant street church who reside in the Shadyside district.

RAILROAD STOPS BIG WATER MAIN

BIGELOW REVISES THE PLANS

Obstacles to the laying of the Big 50-inch water main to the South Side were raised yesterday morning by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad officials, and Contractor T. A. Gillespie was compelled to suspend operations in Junction hollow, Schenley park, where the main is to be laid under the tracks of the Pittsburgh Junction railroad, a connecting line of the Baltimore & Ohio.

The objections of the Baltimore & Ohio officials resulted in several hurried conferences yesterday at the city hall, at the Baltimore & Ohio railroad station and on the scene of the trouble. Robert Pitney, superintendent of the railroad, accompanied by Chief Engineer Chrothers, made a hasty trip to the city hall to see Director Bigelow. Contractor Gillespie, who is laying the water main, also went to the city hall about the same time, but failed to find Director Bigelow. He returned later in the afternoon and held a session with the director and Morris Knowles, superintendent of the bureau of filtration.

Later the three men went to the Baltimore & Ohio station, where they held a protracted conference with Supt. Pitney and his engineers. Director Bigelow stated that the matter would be adjusted. A visit was also paid by the city officials to Junction hollow, where the city is laying the main alongside of the railroad.

There is a 12-inch line from the Twenty-third ward extending down to Junction hollow, and it is stated that the city proposes to connect this line with the South Side main to give the residents of the Twenty-third ward relief from the water shortage of which they are complaining. The railroad objected to the connection because it was necessary to lay the pipes under its tracks.

Director Bigelow said it might be necessary to change the location of the tracks at this point, but he predicted that the matter would be speedily adjusted without either party going into court. He stated last night that the city has revised its plans and they were to be submitted to the Baltimore & Ohio officials today for their approval.

Comic Valentine Season Cannot Be Extended Throughout the Year by Postoffice Department.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Acting Postmaster General Hitchcock, in a circular mailed today to all postmasters, has renewed the campaign started recently against objectionable post cards. He has called attention to the rule which bars from the mails every card bearing a picture or language that is obscene, indecent or improperly suggestive, and has constituted every postmaster a judge of this character of art.

If there is doubt as to the indecency of the card Mr. Hitchcock is to act as the highest court. The use of the mails for pictorial cards has become so extensive that the department says it has extended the comic valentine season over the entire year. Most of the complaints come from persons who have been the recipients of vulgar cards mailed anonymously.

THE WINNING STROKE

If more than ordinary skill in playing brings the honors of the game to the winning player, so exceptional merit in a remedy ensures the commendation of the well informed, and as a reasonable amount of outdoor life and recreation is conducive to the health and strength, so does a perfect laxative tend to one's improvement in cases of constipation, biliousness, headaches, etc. It is all important, however, in selecting a laxative, to choose one of known quality and excellence, like the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., a laxative which sweetens and cleanses the system effectually, when a laxative is needed, without any unpleasant after effects, as it acts naturally and gently on the internal organs, simply assisting nature when nature needs assistance, without griping, irritating or debilitating the internal organs in any way, as it contains nothing of an objectionable or injurious nature. As the plants which are combined with the figs in the manufacture of Syrup of Figs are known to physicians to act most beneficially upon the system, the remedy has met with their general approval as a family laxative, a fact well worth considering in making purchases.

It is because of the fact that SYRUP OF FIGS is a remedy of known quality and excellence, and approved by physicians that has led to its use by so many millions of well informed people, who would not use any remedy of uncertain quality or inferior reputation. Every family should have a bottle of the genuine on hand at all times, to use when a laxative remedy is required. Please to remember that the genuine Syrup of Figs is for sale in bottles of one size only, by all reputable druggists, and that full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co., is plainly printed on the front of every package. Regular price, 50c per bottle.

GAMES TODAY.

Brooklyn at Pittsburgh (2).
Boston at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Cincinnati.
New York at St. Louis.

The game yesterday between the Pittsburgh and Brooklyn teams was called off on account of the thick fog that hung over Exposition park. Games have been called off on account of rain, snow, sandstorms and fire, but only twice in the history of the National league have games been prevented by fog, both in Pittsburgh. Several times games have been cut short for that reason, the last being on Thursday, when the fog became so dense that everything was declared off after the seventh inning. The first postponement on account of fog was on September 30, 1897, when the Clevelands were scheduled to play here. Patsy Tebeau was at the head of the Cleveland gang, which consisted of such breezy players as Jack O'Conner, Cupid Childs, Rhody Wallace, Ed McKean, Jesse Burkett, Ollie Pickering, Charley Zimmer, Louis Criger and others. The fog was so thick that people in the grandstand could not distinguish the pitchers who tossed the ball in practice immediately in front of them.

Not a player on the present Brooklyn team was in the National league then except Checkard, who was used in the in and outfield. Of the Pittsburgh players Clarke and Wagner were with the Louisville team.

To even up the schedule two games will be played today at Exposition park, the first to begin at 1:30 o'clock. The Clevelands, in 1897, also played a double-header after the fog-stopped game, and lost both to the Pirates. They also lost the third game, which was the last of the season. Incidentally, it may be mentioned that in 1897 the Pirates won only one game at Cleveland, and the Clevelands won but one game at Pittsburgh. Today's game will be the second double-header of the season with the Brooklyns. On their last trip here they had a postponed game and played a double-header the next day. They won the first game and lost the second.

The Pittsburghs played three double-headers at home this season. As mentioned above, they broke even with Brooklyn. They also broke even with Philadelphia. Against St. Louis they won both games.

Case will pitch one of the games today. His finger, which was hurt a week ago, is now strong enough to permit him to grasp the ball. Clarke will try Rube Kinsella in the other game. It is possible that in the remaining games Clarke will use the new men as much as possible, and Steamer Flanagan may be given an opportunity to show what he can do in center field. Leach reopened the wounds in his leg on Thursday, and Clarke is afraid that if Tommy remains in the game the injury caused by Dan McGann's spikes may prove serious. There is always danger of blood poisoning.

Mal Eason, who shut out Chicago this week, and McIntyre are likely to work for Hanlon today. The Brooklyn club will leave at 6 o'clock tonight for St. Louis, where it is scheduled for a double-header tomorrow.

New York Wins Both Games.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29.—Pitching more with his head than with his arm, Christy Mathewson held Shay on third base in the ninth inning of the first game of today's double-header after the latter had swept the bases and tied the score with a three-bagger. There was no one out, but Mathewson, by adopting the dangerous tactics of passing presumably strong batters and directing his attention to the weaker members, retired the side. New York then won the game in the eleventh inning by a score of 6 to 5. The second game was all New York. Attendance 3,500. Scores:

GAMES TODAY.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—The American league leaders scored their second straight victory over Chicago today in the crucial series for the championship. The home team outplayed the visitors in all departments of the game. The Philadelphians batted hard, Chicago using a third pitcher to hold the leaders. In the meantime Bender, the Indian pitcher, was twirling a steadily effective game. Except in the fifth inning, when Chicago scored its only run on two doubles, Bender kept the hits scattered. Philadelphia scored its first run on a double and a single. In the fourth inning two singles, a sacrifice and two doubles gave them three more. Walsh, who succeeded Altrock, was hit in the fifth and sixth innings for four doubles and a single, gave two bases on balls and made a wild pitch, all of which gave the home team seven more runs. Smith succeeded Walsh and stopped the run-getting. There were 15,087 persons present, or 29,433 for the two games. Score.

Washington Fields in Poor Shape.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Washington's poor fielding gave St. Louis today's game. In the fourth inning a base on balls and three singles with the assistance of four errors enabled the visitors to gain a lead which the home team could not overcome. Morgan of St. Louis was put off the field for criticising the umpire's decisions. Attendance 900. Score:

BASEBALL CHATTER.

The first game this afternoon will begin at 1:30.

Double-header today and the last of the Brooklyn team for the season.

The Athletics yesterday made seven two-baggers off the White Sox pitchers.

The Giants yesterday crossed the century line in victories, beating the Cardinals twice.

The second game at St. Louis yesterday was one postponed from New York on the Cardinals' last trip east.

Frank Smith, the Pittsburgh lad, stopped the run-getting of the Athletics. He pitched the last three innings.

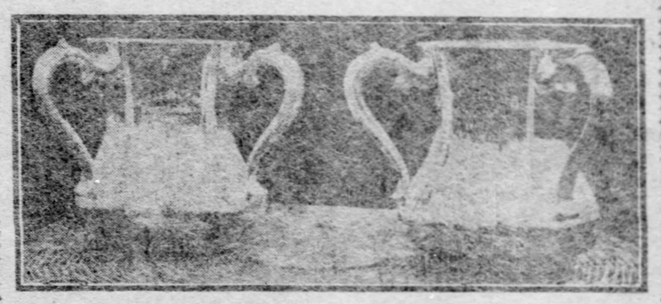
The Chicago club has traded Pitcher Jake Weimer to the Cincinnati club for Third Baseman Harry Steinfeldt, with Jim Sebring thrown in.

Arrangements have been made at Exposition park to bulletin the result of the American league game between the Athletics and the Chicago White Stockings. One of these teams will play the Giants for the championship of the world and as the race is close every game counts.

Manager Clarke tried to put his team through a course of practice yesterday afternoon after the game had been called off, but he had to abandon the plan, as the outfielders were not visible from the home plate, and the second baseman and shortstop could not be seen from the grand stand.

One week from today the season will close at Exposition park. It will be Beltzhoover day, as the Beltzhoover Athletic association is going to turn out in honor of Hans Lobert of the Chicagos, and Knabe of the Pirates. The association has bought two hundred tickets and expects to dispose of as many more. An elaborate program, which includes presentations and a parade, has been arranged.

HANDSOME TROPHY CUPS OFFERED BY PRESIDENT DARLINGTON



The president's cup, for which the semi-finals will be played today at the Allegheny Country club, and the president's handicap cup, also in competition today.

PENN CANCELS ON W. U. P.

Quakers Allege Too Much Professionalism on Local Team. W. & J. at Princeton.

FROM THE OTHER COLLEGES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—The University of Pennsylvania football authorities announced this afternoon that they had today cancelled the game scheduled for November 18 with the Western University of Pennsylvania team of Pittsburgh. The U. of P. men claim that the W. U. P. team is little less than a professional aggregation and they have called off the game on that account.

The Washington and Jefferson college football team was the center of attraction at Franklin Field this afternoon. Not only did the gridiron representatives from the western part of the state have a snappy practice on the university grounds, but they received instruction for nearly two hours from the best talent at the local university. The U. of P. football coaches and players showed Coach Piekarski of the W. and J. eleven every courtesy. The following Pennsylvania football men assisted on the coaching of Washington and Jefferson this afternoon: Carl Williams, "Hurry" Dickson, Capt. Reynolds, ex-Capt. Forrey, "Blondy" Wallace, "Jack" Hedges, and "Al." Smith. The W. and J. team did not line up against Penn as Piekarski did not wish to cripple his players before the Princeton game. The W. and J. team will leave for Princeton in the morning.

W. U. P.

CONNEAUT LAKE, PA., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Several more of the varsity men who had been out of the game during the past week reported for practice today and were given an hour of signal practice. Some improvement over the work of the past few days was noticeable, due perhaps to the presence of the regulars in the lineup. The backs were given much needed practice in catching punts. This department of the work is weak at present. The team leaves tomorrow at 7:50 a. m. over the Bessemer. The party will remain over the afternoon for the game with Butler, arriving at Pittsburgh between 6 and 7 o'clock. Many substitutes will be used in the Butler game.

W. U. P. will line up as follows: Left end, Perry; quarterback, Banbury; left tackle, Turner; left guard, Zieg; center, Leidenroth, McKean; right guard, Yielding, Vitte; right tackle, Marshall, Rice; right end, Miller, F. Griggs; quarter, Besseau, Richey; left half, A. Griggs, Klavuhn; right half, Schmidt, Capt. W. Banbury; fullback, Mehl, Capwell, Rice.

Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—The Tigers gathered today for a sharp, though light practice and in view of tomorrow's game with Washington and Jefferson, the men were handled with care. The scrimmage was marked by the good mass work of the varsity. They gained at will, and Capt. Cooney repeated his work of yesterday by making a 25-yard gain with half the scrub clinging to him like leeches, but he finally found the ground on his back and smashed through everything in his way. Mostly by means of his splendid work the varsity went down the field like a whirlwind and in four plays brought up within a few yards of the goal, where the plucky scrub managed to hold them for downs. Two touchdowns were scored in the course of the practice. Oxton played a strong, fast game at end, and is an interesting possibility for the future. Moscrip will make a first-class kicker if he keeps on as he has begun and he has the combination of weight and activity to make a good back. McCormick is off the field at present trying to get rid of a rash that came from ivy poison. He will not be in tomorrow's line-up nor will Pfeiffer, who is nursing a bruised knee. Dutcher is still absent from the field with the slight injury sustained last week and now the latest addition to the hospital squad is Wollock, who is down with a splintered shoulder and will probably be off duty for two weeks at least.

Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—No scrimmage work was given the Cornell football squad this afternoon, but for nearly an hour the team that will start tomorrow's game with Colgate and eleven scrubs, some of whom will substitute, were sent through lively signal practice, and were taught several new formations. The coaches hope that an improvement in team work will be shown over Wednesday's game. Another surprise was sprung by Coach Glenn S. Warner tonight, when he shifted Capt. Costello from center, where he was yesterday, to his old time position at left tackle. He may remain there unless circumstances force his being changed back to quarterback. At present this is the weakest position of all. No material has yet appeared that seems capable of running the team with a cool head, and at the same time is good in all other respects. There is some talk of trying Rice, the star left halfback, here, not in tomorrow's game, however, but possibly next week.

All records for heavy weight were broken tonight with the appearance of Kelley, a country boy, who comes from Oriskany and tips the scales at 260 pounds. He lacks experience, but when put up as a target for the giant Thompson, showed that he had grit. He may not be used outside of the scrub this year, but if he develops properly may make good timber for another season. Burton of Butte, Mont., another new man who showed that he is not a stranger in football clothes, also came out for the first tonight, and with training under Coach Leuler, gives promise of developing into a splendid guard or tackle.

Thompson and Schildmiller, the former Andover stars, will enter tomorrow's game. Thompson may not be used throughout. The lineup will be: Schildmiller and Van Ormam, ends; Costello and Halliday, tackles; Osterlin and Thompson, guards; Hodge, center, with Pollock, Rice, Martin and Walters in the backfield.

Yale.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Entrance examinations have deprived Yale of a promising football player in Andrus of Lawrenceville school, who weighs 235 pounds and is of just the timber most needed in Yale's line this year. Failing to pass into college he left this afternoon for Phillips Andover academy to study another year. Yale will lose, at least temporarily, Paige also. He came this year from St. Paul's school. Conditions which he must work off by special examinations later in the term will keep him out of play for some time.

As Trinity college cancelled her engagement here for tomorrow, Yale's initial game will be that with Wesleyan university next Wednesday.

Foster Rockwell has been placed in charge of the second eleven. A better taskmaster it would be difficult to find. The practice today was brisk and of 20 minutes duration, despite summer heat.

Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Captain Hurley's Harvard warriors will be given their first real test of football tomorrow afternoon, when the Gibson clan meets Williams college on Soldier's field. A big squad will be tried out in the short periods, which in all probability will be of 15 and 10-minute durations. So far the progress of the varsity has been very successful, and only a few minor injuries have been encountered. The work today was unusually light, and consisted mainly of signals, punting, drop kicking and formation plays. In punting Hamley, Brill and Squires have used, and they showed a big improvement. On the ends tomorrow Captain Hurley will play O'Brien, Blair, Inches and Hall. Brill, Squires, Foltz and Kersberg will have an opportunity to show their worth as tackles, and Foster, Pierce, McFadon, McLean and Brown will be played in the guard berths. Waite and Cunniff are down for center, and Starr, Morris and Kempner are named as quarterbacks. In the back field division Henley and Boyd will be played at fullback, and Foster, Wendell, Nesmith and Leonard as halfbacks.

West Point.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The football season at West Point will open tomorrow with a game against Tufts. The soldiers' eleven will play the game with many positions filled by substitutes whom the coaches will try out. Captain Gillespie, Torney and Hanlon of last year's team, owing to injuries received in practice, are not expected to line up in the game. The various positions will be filled as follows: Centers, Abraham and Lewis; quarterback, Garry and Johnson; guards, Weeks, Christie, Ross and Shutt; tackles, Edwin, Miller, Sultan and Stockton; ends, Gillespie, Wilhelm, Simons and Hetrick; backs, Smith, Beavers, Tillson, Wakins, Willis and Hill. The West Point eleven at this period in its training compares favorably with the teams of former years.

U. of P.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Minor injuries to some of the university players and restrictions placed upon others by the faculty have operated against picking the team that will line up against Lehigh university tomorrow. Not one of the men is suffering any serious injury, but the coaches do not want to jeopardize their usefulness by playing them until needed. Lehigh is considered an easier mark than Swarthmore, and, as Swarthmore comes to Franklin field next week, the best men will be reserved for that event. The faculty restrictions are such that all the men have not yet complied with them, and unless they do so before the game tomorrow they will not be permitted to play. Thus it is that tomorrow's team has not yet been chosen. Pennsylvania's first team did not indulge in any hard work today, the coaches confining the men to a signal drill.

Will Discuss Proposed Change.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—President Cramer of the Tri-State league has called a meeting of the league at Harrisburg on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Among the interesting matters to be discussed will be the proposed change in the circuit.

BEAVER HIGH SCHOOL BEATEN ON THE BLUFF

Pittsburgh College Sophomores Open Season and Charlie Duffy's Outfit Wins.

The football season opened in Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon when the Pittsburgh College sophomores and Beaver High school met on the Bluff gridiron, the collegians winning, 16 to 5.

It was a pretty contest, free from any kind of wrangling or rough play. Lack of practice told on both teams. At first it looked as though the Bluffites would win in a walk, but the visitors braced in the second half and scored a touchdown.

Capt. Duffy kicked off to J. Duff. Beaver made some nice gains, but fumbled. Neilan and Duffy hit the line for substantial gains. R. Dowling gained 20 yards on a quarterback run. E. Dowling then went through the line for a touchdown after seven minutes of play. R. Dowling missed goal.

Duffy crossed the line for the second touchdown and R. Dowling kicked goal. The first half ended with the score: P. C. S., 11; E. H. S., 0.

Splendid line plunging and end runs by Bradshaw, Morrow and J. Duff brought the ball to within four yards of the Collegians' goal. J. Duff carried it over. Goal was missed. The Bluffites waded in and scored another touchdown on a 30 yard run by Duffy. Line-up and score:

SPLIT HEATS AT CINCINNATI

EVERY MILE IS BELOW 2:10

CINCINNATI, Sept. 29.—Not a favorite won at the Grand Circuit meeting at Oakley park today. In the 2:15 trot, the first event on the card, Albert C., the favorite, took the first heat in a fierce drive from Boreazelle, the second choice. Boreazelle easily won the second heat from Albert C. In the third and fourth heats Boreazelle and Bowentcher fought it out, Boreazelle winning both heats and the race.

Maude Keswick, the favorite, won the first two heats in the 2:06 pace from Don Carr and Royal Patch. Hazel Patch won the third by a neck from Maud Keswick. In the fourth Major McKinley led the field until the last sixteenth, where Hazel Patch came with a rush and won by a neck at the post. Hazel Patch easily won the final heat from Fauntine.

In the first heat of the 2:12 trot, Mainland, the favorite, finished sixth. Gold Dust Maid winning by a head from Lady Pauline C., with Kindest King third. Mainland and Gold Dust Maid raced together all the way in the second heat, the latter getting the decision by a nose, with Mara third. A broken sulky wheel caused Lady Pauline C. to throw her driver, Chandler, at the head of the stretch. Neither the driver nor the horse was injured, and the judges placed her eighth in this heat after learning that the accident was purely accidental. Gold Dust Maid won the last heat and race in a fierce drive from Mainland, the latter breaking 10 feet from the wire. Summaries:

CALL MONEY GOES TO 7%, BUT STOCKS CLOSE FIRM

Market Shows Considerable Resistance Except for a Little While in Morning—Local Stocks Make Slight Changes.

Yesterday's New York stock market showed remarkable resistance to the squeeze in the money market. As loans made at the stock exchange on Friday carry over until Monday, it was practically the last day of the month for stock exchange borrowers and consequently making-up day previous to the quarterly settlement of October 1.

The very heavy special requirements at this time in addition to the ordinary demands of the quarterly settlements have been so well understood that the stock exchange community was quite prepared to see a 6 per cent rate for call money. When the rate went above that almost immediately after the opening the market faltered slightly and there came a light spilling out of stocks which carried the price level comprehensively below last night. The heavy offerings of money brought into the market from some of the principal Wall street banks by the 6 per cent rate carried call loans back again to 5¾ per cent. Stocks thereupon recovered and when the rate for money went higher than before the stock market was practically unaffected.

Yesterday's rate was the highest of the year with the exception of a few loans made late on the afternoon preceding the Good Friday holiday, when 7 per cent was quoted to carry over until the following Monday. The equanimity with which the flurry was accepted is due to the very general hope indulged in speculative quarters that the rate will promptly relax next week. The Atchison and Pennsylvania bond subscription payments are expected to be pretty closely confined to shifting of back accounts and the proceeds are expected to be quickly available for return to the money market. The same is true of the tax payments to be made in New York next Monday.

The compilation of the currency movement for the week makes sufficiently plain, however, that other causes than the syndicate and tax transactions go to account for the stiffer money market. Banking authorities expressed the opinion that on the regular express movement with the interior receipts have about balanced the shipments, but the sub-treasury had taken from the banks up to Thursday evening $6,679,000. The government institution had a credit balance at the clearing house yesterday morning of $265,790, thus indicating another day's very heavy drain for yesterday to figure in today's bank statement. After this week's bond transactions are out of the way the Japanese bond subscriptions for October 16 will come into consideration.

The heavy drop in sterling exchange in New York awakened hopes of a revival of the import movement of gold. The rise in the New York money rate induced very heavy offerings of bankers' bills in the exchange market and there was a liberal replenishment also of the supply of cotton bills. The resulting fall in prices of checks on London amounted to a quarter of a cent in the pound.

The money rate showed a tendency to settle at about 6 per cent late in the day, after having run up to 6½ per cent at one time and having fluctuated below that figure, with a belated flurry to 7 per cent. The effort to rally the markets centered on the Reading stocks, and an increase in the dividend on Railway Steel Spring caused a jump in that stock and speculative advances in a number of other low-priced industrials. The market closed strong in spite of the dullness. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,764,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on call.

A development which came rather late in yesterday's trading on the Pittsburgh stock exchange demonstrated that the standard local stocks are not weak, even if trading in them is not so active as was the case a week ago. A buying order for Pittsburgh Coal preferred came into the market and before transactions amounting to 137 shares had been concluded the price was up 1½ to 59. Earlier in the day the stock had sold in small lots for 57½.

The total transactions yesterday on the local board were 2,899 shares of stock and $5,500 bonds. The market was notably without interest, apparently as much attention being paid by the local brokers to the New York situation as to local matters. The stocks in which there is a chance for a considerable movement on account of forthcoming announcements have all been played to the limit. The two Crucible issues on small dealings lost fractionally, as did a number of other shares without any particular significance attaching to their movement. Others gained fractionally, but the list as a whole was without noteworthy developments. Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Connellsville 5s, on the sale of one bond, made a new high mark of 101, the first advance above par.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The call money rate in Wall street yesterday rose to the highest of the year. In the afternoon the banks and trust companies loaned millions at 6½ and 7 per cent. During the morning loans were made at 5¾, 6 and 6½ per cent.

In April money loaned at 7 per cent, and in June at 6 per cent. Yesterday's rise was due to preparations for October disbursements, beginning Monday and amounting to $75,000,000, to the heavy payment of taxes and several banking syndicate operations.

The National City bank was the largest lender of the day, putting out over $10,000,000.

The question whether Pittsburgh banks would send money to New York on account of the big rate on call loans was frequently discussed here yesterday, when the New York call rose to 7 per cent. It was stated by one banker that such cases were rare and that he did not expect local money to go east. He believed that such loans would be very short-lived. Inasmuch as the rate is caused by special conditions, which will soon disappear.

The annual report of the Crucible Steel Company will be made public by Wednesday of next week at the latest. The preparation of the document is now well advanced.

Pittsburgh Oil and Gas directors yesterday declared a quarterly dividend of ½ per cent, the same rate as in July.

The Monongahela Water Company has declared the usual quarterly dividend of 2 per cent.

City Deposit bank directors declared a regular quarterly dividend of 4 per cent.

The Western Saving and Deposit bank declared the usual quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent.

Franklin Savings and Trust Company, 1¼ per cent quarterly.

Washington National bank, 2 per cent quarterly.

Third National bank, 1½ per cent quarterly.

First National bank of Birmingham, 4 per cent quarterly.

Diamond National bank, 5 per cent quarterly; Diamond Savings, 2 per cent.

The Monongahela Water Company has declared a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent.

The Tonopah Mining Company of Nevada has declared a regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents a share, payable October 21 to stockholders of record October 10.

The directors of the Metropolitan National bank have declared a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent.

The report was received over a broker's wire yesterday that the United States Steel Corporation had contracted for the full coke production of the Bessemer Coke Company for five years. This was positively denied by President W. T. Humphreys, who said that not only had there been no sale of the company's production to the Steel Corporation, but that not even any negotiations had been had. The company is one of the largest independents.

The $35,000,000 4 per cent 50-year gold bonds authorized by the special meeting of the stockholders of Wheeling & Lake Erie will provide for retirement at maturity of $5,500,000 of 4 per cent three-year notes sold recently, besides making provision for other future requirements of the company. No part of the issue will be sold at present.

It will be remembered that in May of this year stockholders of this road authorized an issue of $50,000,000 4 per cent 50-year bonds, of which $16,000,000 were sold to a syndicate headed by Rudolph Kleybolte & Co., but that this syndicate afterward objected to taking the bonds on the ground that there were discrepancies between official information obtained through President Ramsey and that furnished by Mr. Delano, his successor. In view of the modifications which it was necessary to make it was decided to withdraw the issue, and Tuesday's action by the stockholders is the result.

The meeting approved the mortgage of the new bonds and the indenture of the $5,500,000 notes which have already been sold. These notes were taken by a syndicate headed by William R. Read & Co. and Blair & Co., and will provide for all further capital requirements of the road.

The Railway Steel Spring Company has declared a dividend of 2 per cent on the common, thus placing the stock upon a 4 per cent basis. The stock, which sold at 25¾ at the opening, advanced 4¾, following the announcement.

Chemical National bank of New York shares sold at the record price of $4,450. The bank has $300,000 capital and nearly $7,700,000 surplus and undivided profits.

The deposits of the national banks of the United States now amount to $4,135,417,585. Against these deposits the banking laws of the United States require reserves of $677,198,625. Out of their required reserve the laws permit the country banks to keep a portion on deposit in the reserve cities. The banks in the three central reserve cities of New York, Chicago and St. Louis are the only ones which are required to keep all of their reserve in actual cash in their own vaults. The total amount of lawful reserve held by the national banks of the United States, both in their own vaults and on deposit with reserve agents, is $1,057,282,113, this being 21.62 per cent of the deposits.

EPOCH-MAKING MARKET SMASHES PRECEDENTS

Stocks Advance Despite Jump in the Money Rates—Situation is Abnormal.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Herald this (Saturday) morning says:

"It was an epoch making market, that of yesterday. The list moved entirely contrary to every preconceived notion of how a stock market should act. Old standards do not apply—old rules go by the board—experience goes for nothing—that is, for the time being. Some day will probably tell another story.

Yesterday's story was that, following an extensive advance in discount by the Bank of England, and the bank and market account gains of European capitals, the call money rate at New York advanced to 7 per cent. Yet, instead of working liquidation, stock prices advanced.

Upon this theory of markets one may figure that if prices move up when money moved up from 5 to 7 per cent, they should advance still further if money goes to 10 per cent, higher still should it go to 25 per cent, and to fifteen rates we might have an active public participation, a real bull market, when the rate gets to that odd figure of 15 per cent. The market is abnormal.

Of course, the theory upon which the professional element advanced their prices yesterday was that a crucial test had been made and withstood in the money market. Assuredly the test was made, and in view of the very heavy payments and extensive shifting of accounts, the money market stood the storm extraordinarily well. It is not going above 7 per cent for call loans.

That is well and good, get the first stands out clear and distinct that a normal market, no matter how well it was furthest to resist a strain, would have turned to the force of high money. Higher time rates, 6 per cent for 60-day loans; higher call rates, 6 per cent for day-to-day money; higher discounts everywhere, and a drain from local banks to where alcohol, and a drain from local banks to the government of $6,679,000 during the week, and, with this, advancing prices in stocks, which in cases return 2½ to 3 per cent at the price, going still higher as money rates make their yield less attractive—surely it was an epoch-making market, but whether well-founded time only can tell.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

During the coming week the first of 1,000 carloads of machinery will begin to arrive at Jarbia, N. M., consigned to the Southwest Smelting & Refining Company. The contract for the plant, of which there is to be 25 million, stipulated that it must be landed in the city limits in Chicago by September 15. The first of the smelter material is also on the way, and construction is to commence at once.

The advent of electric power in the Tonopah and Goldfield camps emphasizes the great strides these districts are making, and the reduction of operating costs will undoubtedly stimulate the mining industry. The Nevada Power, Mining and Milling Company has contracted for the construction of its transmission line from Bishop Creek Cal., to Tonopah and Goldfield and electric power is now available for the mines at a cost of about half the present price of operating machinery by gasoline or by steam with coal for fuel.

It is rumored in mining circles that a movement is now under way and already well advanced, to consolidate the various dredging companies in the Breckenridge district of Colorado. One of these, the Gold Pan, capitalized in New York and Philadelphia, has already expended over $500,000, while another, the North American of Boston, has been declared a dividend payer for several years, claiming an annual gold output of $75,000 to $120,000. The advantage of consolidation is a better use of the water available and cheaper electric power. Besides, the cost of supervision, office forces, etc., will be very much lessened.

The refusal of the Stratton's Independence Company (Cripple Creek) mines or treatment contracts with either the mill or smelter trust is explained in the purchase of the Dorcas mill at Florence for a sum said to exceed $200,000. The various leases on the company's property at Victor are shipping a total of 5,000 tons of ore a month, more than enough to keep the Florence mill busy.

S. S. Bernard, president of the El Paso Gold Mining Company, has issued a circular to the stockholders of the company stating the real cause of the decline of the stock in the last two months. The beginning of the decline of the stock in his opinion was due to the sale of large blocks of stock by a local stock broker, and also to the litigation about the purchase of the Beacon hill Alps.

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Money was in good demand in the market today and rates were comparatively easy, owing to the large amounts recently drained from the Bank of England. Discounts were somewhat unsettled and there was much uncertainty regarding the course of rates for the next week or two. Trading in the stock exchange generally was dull, inactive and irregular. Consols were easier. Home rails hardened somewhat. Americans opened dull, with Chesapeake & Ohio as an exception, that stock having risen in good accumulation. There was a general selling rally to above parity later, but prices moved irregularly and closed dull. Grand Trunk weakened a fraction on prospectuses, though the increase in revenue for August exceeded expectations. Japanese imperial 6s of 1st were raised at 106. Canada for money, 90; canada for account, 90¼; the street quoted 2¾ bid for cannon's money, 2¾@2¾ per cent; short paper rates, short bills, 2¾ per cent; three months' bills, 2¾@2¾ per cent.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—The close on the Bourse today was calm and prices were heavy. Russian imperial 6s were quoted at 96.85 and Japanese bonds of 1904 at 85. The private discount rate was 2¾ per cent, three per cent prime. Exchange on London, short sight, 25 francs 19½ centimes' bills, 25.07½ per cent.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—The close on the Bourse today was firmer and higher; exchange on London, 20 marks 43½ pfgs; the rate of discount, short bills, 3¾ per cent; three months' bills, 3¾ per cent.

BERLIN, Sept. 29.—Prices on the Bourse today were firmer and higher; exchange on London, 20 marks 43½ pfgs; the rate of discount, short bills, 3¾ per cent; three months' bills, 3¾ per cent.

PUZZLING SUIT TESTS LAWYERS

Four Claims for Commissions on Sale of Smith Block—The Union National Wanted It.

ANOTHER PENN AVENUE BUY

"The most remarkable case of its kind I ever heard of."

This is the way Judge J. W. Over of the orphans' court characterized the litigation that is now pending regarding the sale of the Smith block at Liberty avenue and Sixth street. Dozens of prominent real estate men yesterday heard with keen interest the conflicting claims of four plaintiffs who want a share of the $1,117,000 which the Pittsburgh Life and Trust Company paid for the property, which it secured four months ago at auction. The bulk of the testimony in their behalf was submitted and the case will be held over until next Thursday morning, October 5, when the Smith estate and the Fidelity Title and Trust Company will have a chance to establish their claims. There is every probability that the arguments in the case will include some clever features in real estate law, as some of the ablest attorneys in the city are battling for the conflicting interests.

The claims advanced yesterday are in brief as follows: D. P. Black, representing the Real Estate Trust Company, and W. A. Avey of the firm of Avey & Irish, who was formerly mortgage manager and salesman for the Real Estate Trust Company, asks for a commission of $15,000 or 1.5 per cent, for selling the property to the late Henry W. Oliver. The closing of this deal was blocked in court by the action of some of the Smith heirs. J. B. Griggs wants $15,000 commission, claiming that he first presented the property to the Pittsburgh Life and Trust Company.

Union National Bid $1,100,000.

Mr. Griggs has another claim to commission which caused a complete surprise in realty circles. Although not before known, the Union National bank, through Elias, submitted an offer of $1,100,000 for the property and put up a check of $100,000 as a guarantee of good faith. This was after the decision of orphans' court ratifying the original sale to Mr. Oliver had been nullified. Before the auction, however, the Union National made the consolidation with N. Holmes & Sons and gave up the idea of buying the Smith block. Jacob H. Gochring claims $10,000 on the ground that he first got the Kaufmanns interested in the property and by putting up the first check in orphans' court in guarantee of a higher price than $1,000,000 helped the Smith estate to make money. Attorney W. K. Jennings also demands $10,000 for "legal services," arguing that he got an option on seven-twelfths of the Smith interests, secured a higher bid than $1,000,000, and thus was for the Smith estate the chief instrument in getting $117,000 more for the property than the original price.

Only two points of interest as matters of real estate were brought out yesterday. One was that the price, $1,000,000, the figure which the Real Estate Trust Company bargained to secure for the property in 1903, was a higher price proportionately than $1,117,000 last May. The other was that the usual commission on all large real estate deals is 2 per cent, and that it makes no difference whether a broker or firm works six hours or six years to earn this commission, but that under certain circumstances the brokers may contract to sell the property at a lower commission, as was the case in the first sale of the Smith block.

Has Big Penn Avenue Corner.

Harry Davis has added to his Penn avenue holdings by the purchase of 1612, which he secured from J. H. Armstrong for $18,000 or $750 a front foot. The deal was made by Liggett & Lennox through John R. Griffiths of J. H. Goehring's office. The lot measures 24x109 feet, extending back to Spring alley and adjoining the St. James church, which Mr. Davis bought three years ago. Two old brick houses on the lot rent for $76 a month. This deal gives Mr. Davis 144x100 feet at the southeast corner of Penn avenue and Sixteenth street, the largest corner block out Penn avenue. The church has at present used for a storehouse for theatrical materials, but it is said that it will be remodeled in the spring for produce warehouses.

Through the office of C. G. Mitchell J. M. Brody of the East End Mantel & Tile Company has purchased 96 feet of frontage with a depth of 130 feet on the north side of Jackson street, near Heberton avenue, Ninteenth ward, for $12,000. In part payment Mr. Mitchell takes an 11-room, reception-hall brick house on 36x100 feet on the east side of Dewey avenue, Edgewood, valued at $7,600. Mr. Brody expects to improve the Jackson street frontage with two reception-hall brick residences to cost $8,000 or $10,000 each. The site is a part of the Booth place plan of lots.

The Freehold Real Estate Company has sold for Samuel Clelworthy to Thomas Burns his residence at 815 Craig street, Fourteenth ward, for $15,000. The house is of the reception-hall type, with all modern improvements, and stands on 50x150 feet. The buyer will occupy it about November 1.

$60,000 for Ligonier Springs Hotel.

Ex-Sheriff Clawson of Westmoreland county, who now resides in Greensburg, bid off the Ligonier Springs hotel Thursday afternon for $60,000. This price includes the hotel proper, four cottages and three acres of land. When the auction opened the outside property was put up first, but the owners, R. D. W. Bruner and W. C. Cronkright, concluded after the bidding started that it would be better to sell all together. No Pittsburgh bidders were present. A. M. Brush of Kansas City, who represents a syndicate of western buyers who are making their investments along the new Wabash lines, arrived a little too late to bid. The completion of the Pittsburgh, Westmoreland & Somerset railroad, a supposed Wabash line, which is expected to be accomplished by November 15, will make Ligonier Springs a point of considerably more importance, owing to the short cut it affords.

Dr. J. A. Langfitt of this city has sold to David Challis and William Mertz of Sewickley the well-known Frankfort Springs resort in Beaver county, 16 miles back from Shenopin, for $7,500. The property includes 12 acres of ground and a frame hotel of 21 rooms, with an eight-room cottage. The mineral water from the springs is in much demand and the new owners expect to fix up the place for a model resort.

Through the agency of Prugh & Reich of the South Side Patrick McAvoy has sold to a local business man the Point View hotel in Baldwin township for $18,500. The hotel is on the Brownsville road street car line and will be remodeled for the owner's use. It is a two-story frame building containing 14 rooms, and standing on a plot of two acres.

Popular Plan on South Side.

One of the most attractive of the smaller lot plans launched this season in the suburban districts adjoining the South Side is the Rosemont allotment, formerly the Peter Lauch property, in Carrick borough, which Prugh & Reich are handling. The property has been plotted into 81 lots, ranging from 40 to 46 feet in width and 150 feet deep. The total frontage in Brownsville road is about 600 feet, and the lots are being sold at from $300 up. Gas, water and sewer connections have been provided. By the Suburban line it is only 30 minutes from the city, and 22 lots have been sold during the last 10 days, mostly to South Side buyers.

Max I. Andursky has bought from Solomon Jacobson an improved lot, 29x96 feet, in Federal street, near Fifth avenue, Seventh ward, for $12,000.

The deed has been registered in the sale of the W. P. Snyder residence to Edward V. Babcock, which was announced last spring. The property is in two parcels, one measuring 80x140 feet at Ellsworth avenue and Colonial place, Twentieth ward, and the other 40x84 feet adjoining it in Ellsworth avenue. The residence is one of the finest in that district and the price was $75,000.

Molamphy & Bochert have moved their real estate offices from 908 Arrott building to 414 Grant street.

East End Sale Is Closed.

The East End Savings and Trust Company has closed the sale of the H. P. Krebs property at Frankstown avenue and Everett street, Nineteenth ward, to Mrs. Nettie Frauenheim for $24,000. A three-story brick business block stands on the lot, which is 28x100 feet.

Belmar place: Margaret S. Allison sold to Jeremy A. Long an improved lot, 20x120 feet, on the south side of Idlewild street, Twenty-first ward, for $5,650.

East End: George Hubbard sold to Theodore Hoffman 24x100 feet in Penn avenue, near Millvale avenue, Nineteenth ward, for $5,700.

South Side: Mary Gastlehr sold to Peter Frost an improved lot, 24x100 feet, in James street, near Thirty-second street, Twenty-fourth ward, for $2,400.

Juniper street: Maria Freund sold to C. J. Hoffman an improved lot, 35x87 feet, on the west side of Juniper street, Sixteenth ward, for $1,600.

Miller street: Mary G. Kersar sold to R. B. Ross an improved lot, 18x65 feet, at Miller and Clark streets, Eleventh ward, for $5,400.

Whipple street: Louis H. Lasney sold to Nora A. McGladigan an improved lot, 20x110 feet, on the north side of Whipple street, Twenty-second ward, for $2,450.

WILSON'S PREDICTION AFFECTS BUTTER SALE

Head of Agricultural Department Causes Depression in All Dairy Products.

There were no changes of any consequence in any line in the local markets yesterday. The announcement by the United States department of agriculture that lower prices would prevail on butter, cheese and eggs this winter seemed to have a depressing effect on these lines, but no changes were announced. The market was weak, however, and looks like a still weaker one for next week.

There is some sort of movement on in sugar, but what it is only the initiated are allowed to know. Whether the price is going up or down is a matter for guessing by those on the outside, but it is certain that the market is in a shaky condition and heavy buying at present is not considered safe. Dealers are extremely cautious and are buying only what they need. Flour is improving, as the price has got down to what it considered about the winter level, and further reductions are not expected to prove heavy, if any come at all. In view of this, buying has improved decidedly this week.

There was little doing in green goods, fruit and produce. These lines have been slow all week. Fruit receipts are heavy and ample for the demand. Grapes are still coming in great quantity and prices are beginning to break.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts of hay and grain yesterday were: Pennsylvania, 14 cars hay, 8 cars oats, 2 cars corn, 4 cars straw, 2 cars feed, 2 cars rye; Baltimore & Ohio, 10 cars hay, 1 car oats, 1 car corn, 1 car feed; Lake Erie, 3 cars hay, 1 car straw, 1 car oats.

Receipts were not heavy yesterday in any line. Mention made of the low prices in clover and mixed hays by The Gazette yesterday seemed to take many buyers to the yards yesterday morning and all good hay was picked up readily. Corn and oats meet a ready sale. Rye is coming in more freely. Conditions remain generally unchanged.

Completions in the Southwest Hold Out Little Encouragement

The completions in the lower southwest are few and hold out very little encouragement for maintaining the production at the present daily output. It is doubtful if there was twice as much work under way and the completions were twice as many whether the result would be any different so far as causing a less pull on the oil in the storage tanks. In the Yellow Creek district, Cadiz, Harrison county, the South Penn has drilled in a good producer on the H. I. Jackson farm. It is this company's No. 13 on his farm, and when the Berea grit pay was tapped the well began to flow at the rate of 15 barrels an hour. The location is inside of defined limits and opens up nothing new. In the early development of the H. I. Jackson farm the South Penn got some of the best producers found in the Yellow Creek district. The same company's second test on the O. W. Silcott farm to the northwest of development is holding up at 40 barrels a day. In the Reynolds run end of the field the Carter Oil Company has completed the Hogg No. 1 on O. Oswald's farm, and has a light pumper in the Berea grit. It will not be good for more than five barrels a day. The location is west of the same company's No. 14 on the Rebecca Curry farm and shows that the producing formation does not extend for any considerable distance in that direction.

In advance of the Wellsburg pool, in Brooke county, Hickman & Co. have completed their test on the Sabina Lewis farm and have a producer good for 125 barrels a day from the Berea grit. This well is about 400 feet in advance of previous developments. Near Uhlantown, Wayne county, the Wheeling Gas Company has completed a test on the John M. Phillips farm and has a good gasser in the Big Injun sand. Three miles southwest of Reader station, in the same county, the Hope Natural Gas Company has completed a test on the Rachel Burgess farm and has a fair gasser in the Big Injun. On Fish creek, Franklin district, Marshall county, the Tri-State Gas Company has completed a test on the Timothy Yoho farm and has a fair gasser in the Gordon. On Sugar run, Clay township, Wetzel county, the Indiana Oil Company has drilled in for No. 4 on the J. K. Anderson farm into the Big Injun and has a light gasser.

On Piles fork, Mannington district, Marion county, N. S. Snyder & Co. have drilled their test on the Amos Varner farm into the Big Injun and have a show for a pumper. The well is still drilling. In the Wardensville district, Hardy county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled for No. 4 on the M. Manion farm through and 20 feet below the Gordon and has no show for a producer. In the Smithfield district, Wetzel county, the same company's No. 17 on the H. W. Peterson farm has filled up 800 feet with fluid. It will be given a shot in the Gordon. In the Burning Springs district, Wirt county, W. G. Edwards & Co. have completed their No. 10 on the Barlinger Oil tract and have a fair pumper in the Big Injun at a depth of 1,342 feet.

On the Ohio side, in the Rinards Mills district, Monroe county, Keubert & Co. have completed a test on the Thomas Sally farm and have a show for a 3-barrel pumper in the Gordon sand. In the same district H. H. Rice & Co. have completed a test on the Second Hillesburg farm and have a show for a four-barrel pumper in the Big Injun at a depth of 1,342 feet.

On the Ohio side, in the Rinards Mills district, Monroe county, Keubert & Co. have completed a test on the Thomas Sally farm and have a show for a 3-barrel pumper in the Gordon sand. In the same district H. H. Rice & Co. have completed a test on the Second Hillesburg farm and have a show for a four-barrel pumper in the Big Injun at a depth of 1,342 feet.

In the Wood Creek district, Washington county, the Pure Oil Producing Company is drilling No. 1 H. J. Burchett and No. 2 M. G. Woodruff.

In the Mc Mertle district, Greene county, the South Penn company shot its No. 7 on the C. J. Bowlby farm and increased the production to 40 barrels a day. In the same district the same company has shot No. 2 L. C. Jerome and it responded by producing 40 barrels the opening 24 hours.

CAPITAL DEPOT NEARING FINISH

GENERAL NEWS OF RAILROADS

The magnificent passenger terminal of the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio railroads at Washington will come into partial use next spring and in a year will be completed.

The new terminal station at the capital is one of the largest in the country, and probably the handsomest and most expensive in the world. It is being built by the Washington Terminal, which is now controlled by the Baltimore & Ohio and the Pennsylvania railroad. The engineering officers of the company have taken great interest in the work, as have many railroad engineers of this country and Europe who have examined the work as it progressed.

When completed the station and terminals will cost about $15,000,000. The plans for the station and the terminals are in accord with recommendations of the authorities of the District of Columbia, which were approved by congress, and the engineering department of the Pennsylvania railroad system. All grade crossings have been eliminated, and every facility for economy in the prompt handling of trains and passengers has been made use of. The station building is designed to be architecturally in harmony with the capitol and the public buildings which are near it, and it will be an ornament to the metropolis of the nation.

Among the railroads entering Washington which will make use of the terminals and the station are the Baltimore & Ohio, the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington, the Southern, Atlantic Coast Line, Richmond-Washington, Chesapeake & Ohio and Seaboard Air Line. These companies have made contracts for the permanent use of the station.

The Washington Terminal Company has $5,000,000 of stock, of which $2,500,000 has been issued fully paid. It has outstanding $10,000,000 3½ per cent first mortgage gold bonds out of an authorized issue of $12,000,000.

Favor Steel Postal Cars.

That the Erie's new steel mail car, built by the Standard Steel Car Company of Pittsburgh, appeals strikingly to postal employes is shown by a recent action of the Spokane (Wash.) branch, Railway Mail association. The resolution, adopted September 4, follows:

Whereas, The Erie Railroad Company has had built for use on its line a new type of all-steel mail car, and

Whereas, The use of such mail car, by reason of its superior strength and non-inflammable qualities, will tend to greatly reduce the risk to life and limb of the employes of the postal service traveling in charge of the mails, and minimize the danger of loss and destruction of the mails in case of accident or fire, now therefore, be it

Resolved, That our delegates from the Eighth division Railway Mail Service to the national convention of the Railway Mail association, to be held in Cincinnati, use their influence to secure the passage by that body of a resolution commending the action of the Erie railroad in their construction of an all-steel mail car, thereby showing their humane and progressive spirit in further safeguarding the mails of the United States and the persons in charge of the same.

"Not My Fight," Says Delano.

President F. A. Delano of the Wheeling & Lake Erie and Wabash Pittsburgh Terminal spent yesterday morning in Pittsburgh with Vice President B. A. Worthington. He left at 1 p. m. for an inspection of the road and was accompanied by the vice president. In reply to a question concerning the Ramsey-Gould contest he said: "I would rather say nothing about the unpleasant matter, except that it is not my fight, and I am heartily glad of that fact."

If Mr. Ramsey wins out, Mr. Delano will probably find he was in the fight after all.

Promotion for S. H. Wiles.

S. H. Wiles was yesterday appointed chief rate clerk in the office of S. L. Seymour, division freight agent of the Pennsylvania railroad's Pittsburgh division. He succeeds W. E. White, who has been appointed commercial agent of the Seaboard Dispatch. Mr. Wiles has been connected with the Pennsylvania for 19 years in the passenger, transportation and freight offices. He has been in the division freight office for three years.

Provision Rate Lowered Today.

A reduction of 5 cents per 100 pounds will go into effect on September 30 on export provisions from East St. Louis and Chicago to New York, the new rate being 29 cents from the Mississippi river and 25 cents from Chicago. Rates from Kansas City to Chicago or East St. Louis are not affected, though Kansas City through rates will be proportionate to those from Chicago and East St. Louis. This reduction has been made by joint agreement expiring November 11, when it is probable that the old rates will be restored.

Railroad Notes.

The Pennsylvania has secured the property of August Miller, between Hays and West streets, Homestead, and will extend its trackage there.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company expects to have the piers on the new Holt bridge at Fairmont, W. Va., finished before cold weather sets in. Two of the piers are completed and the work on the other two is progressing rapidly. The force of laborers at work is large.

President Green of the Texas Midland says he has no knowledge of his road having been sold to the Yoakum syndicate, and that his mother, Mrs. Hetty Green, has not bought the Dallas and Beaumont branch of the Texas & New Orleans.

Vice President Clark of the San Pedro says that the new passenger train will probably not be put on until December. The difficulty with the Southern Pacific over traffic facilities having been adjusted, things at the California end are moving smoothly, though some differences with the Santa Fe remain to be cleared up and are now in course of adjustment.

General Manager Miller of the Wabash yesterday announced that Mr. H. H. Wellman, purchasing agent for many years past, having resigned owing to ill health, Mr. C. A. How, supply agent, is promoted to acting purchasing agent, Mr. R. L. Wiles, storekeeper at Moberly, is promoted to supply agent. Both promotions take effect October 1. Mr. How and Mr. Wiles came to the Wabash from the Burlington with the new administration.

The recent revision of the shop wage scale of the Baltimore & Ohio affects 3,700 men, and adds $150,000 a year to the payroll.

Clarke G. Cunningham, chief clerk of the Pennsylvania railroad at Swissvale, has been enjoying a lake trip and a visit with friends at Duluth for the past three weeks.

George B. Bliss, general freight agent of the Queen & Crescent route, has recovered from his serious illness and resumed his duties.

J. W. Kirn, Pullman agent at the Union station, accompanied by Mrs. Kirn, has returned from a visit to "Dave" MacWalters, general passenger agent of the Short Line, and to other friends at Colorado Springs.

Effective on Sunday, the Wabash station now known as Cecil will be changed to Argyle, and Venice will hereafter be known as Gwendolyn. Avondale, on the Wheeling & Lake Erie, will be changed to Fresno.

OPEN MASONIC TEMPLE.

Five hundred Masons and their friends from Pittsburgh, McKees Rocks, Knoxville, Braddock, Homestead, Ingram, Crafton and other Chartiers valley towns attended the formal opening of the new five-story Masonic temple at Main and Broadway streets, Carnegie, Thursday evening.

The corner stone of the building was laid in July, 1904, and the cost was $100,000. The temple is 150 feet long and 75 feet wide. The first floor is constructed for storerooms, the second for flats and apartments, the third floor is a hall for the use of other orders, the fourth is for the use of Masonic lodges for business sessions and the fifth is a large ball and banquet room. Progressive euchre was the entertainment on the fourth floor and on the fifth a ball was held. The formal opening was by the drill corps of Chartiers Commandery No. 78, Knights Templar.

Two other lodges of Masons, Centennial No. 544, F. & A. M., and Cyrus Chapter No. 280, Royal Arch Masons, will use the lodge rooms.

CUPID WINS TEACHER.

South Side Instructor Accepts Matrimony in Place of Teaching.

Cupid wins and the Humboldt school of the South Side loses. Miss Sophie Frank, one of the most popular teachers in the school, is now Mrs. Craig Cochrane of Carrick and will no longer wield the blackboard pointer.

Rumor declares that two other teachers in the same schol are about to accept matrimony in place of educational effort. As the corps of teachers assigned to the school is more than sufficient for the enrollment, it is not believed that Miss Frank's position will be filled by a new teacher.

Among the Clubs.

Employes Must Be Temperate.

The Columbia hospital, now almost finished in Wilkinsburg, will be an exceptional institution. No one will be employed in any capacity within the institution who is addicted, even in the slightest degree, to the use of a drug or intoxicating liquor as a beverage. This action was taken at the regular monthly meeting of the United Presbyterian Women's association held yesterday afternoon in the Publication building in Ninth street. The action followed the reading of recommendations presented by the board of managers for the hospital, which further specified the requirements of the superintendent, who must be a member of a church of an evangelical denomination, a graduate nurse and one having previous experience in hospital management. The same requirements regarding the use of drugs or intoxicating liquor as a beverage is made of nurses and all other employes within the institution and the same care will be taken regarding the moral standing of any one employed on the place.

The recommendations of the hospital board also related to the medical and surgical departments in the hospital at the time of opening. Four general departments were recommended, with the addition of others as there seemed need, but so great was the divergence of opinion as to the advisability of making the work of the institution at the time of opening so general in character instead of introducing more special departments, thus increasing the staff of physicians, surgeons and specialists, that no decision was arrived at and the meeting adjourned until next Saturday afternoon, October 7, at 2 o'clock, in the same place. At that time, in addition to the discussion of the immediate scope of the hospital, plans will be decided as to the work of the training school, which will be opened as soon as possible.

The association decided to hold its annual reception in November. The formal opening of the new wing of the Home for the Aged will also occur about the same time, the exact date and arrangements being left in the hands of a committee which will report at the next regular meeting of the association, which will be the annual meeting, the fourth Friday in October.

Working for Moral Improvement.

Miss Kate C. MacKnight, president of the Civic club, has received a large number of letters and telephone messages relating to recent occurrences in the streets and the street cars, where women have been subjected to indignities. Some of these, referring to the alleged actions of the police in different sections of the city, will be made the subject of investigation. The letters referring to common sights of drunkenness in the street cars were presented to the directors of the Civic club yesterday afternoon, who authorized the president to appoint a committee of five to visit J. D. Callery, the president of the Pittsburgh Railways Company.

A request was received from Gov. Pennypacker asking for suggestions as to delegates to be appointed from this section of Pennsylvania to attend the conference on immigration to be held in New York December 6 and 7. The names of William H. Kennedy and Charles F. Price will be sent to the governor for appointment. At the meeting yesterday afternoon Mrs. William H. Maerum was elected chairman of the educational department, Miss Nannie Mackerell, the former chairman, not being able to give sufficient time to the work of the department. Miss Marie Dermott, who last year was clerk of the Civic club, was yesterday elected secretary, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Dallas Albert.

Equipment for Council School.

The announcement that Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kaufmann will fully equip the gymnasium of the Columbian Council school in Center avenue and will provide and pay the expenses of an instructor for children four nights each week, was received with pleasure at the first fall meeting of the Columbian Council of Jewish Women on Thursday afternoon. On Monday Miss Julia Schoenfeld of Johnstown will take the place of Miss Yetta Baumgarten, who resigned in the summer as head resident at the Columbian Council school. Miss Schoenfeld left 13 months ago, having served in the same capacity for several years. During September there has been daily registration for the various classes in the school, which will open next week. One of the new features is the kindergarten installed late in the spring by Mr. and Mrs. M. Oppenheimer in memory of their daughter, Miss Nannie Oppenheimer. In the few weeks this was open there was constant increase in the attendance.

The meeting of the Columbian Council of Jewish Women on Thursday was enthusiastic and reports were presented covering every department of work taken up by the women in the council. Miss Miriam Shoenfeld speaking of the vacation school and playground; Mrs. Enoch Rauh of the Juvenile Court Aid society, recently organized; Miss Gustav Cone, music; Mrs. M. Spiro, philanthropy; Mrs. Morris Kaufman, the Needlework guild. It was decided to give up the idea of a theatrical benefit matinee, and instead a series of biblical tableaux as a benefit for the council will be given. These will take place on Sunday evening, December 31, in one of the theaters, and will consist of living pictures of Old Testament subjects and stories. A resolution was adopted urging each member of the council to give 25 cents toward the ladies' pavilion, the annex to the National Hospital for Consumptives in Denver, Col.

The year book of the council was issued yesterday, containing the list of lectures and meetings for the year, among the lecturers being Prof. Emil G. Hirsh, November 26; Miss Elizabeth Hirshfield, December 28; Ward Marsham, February 15, and talks on philanthropy by prominent citizens April 26.

Series of Suffrage Meetings.

A series of public meetings in Pittsburgh and the surrounding towns is being arranged by the Allegheny County Equal Rights association to take place immediately after the meeting of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Woman in Cambridge Springs. Mrs. Rudolph Blankenburg, president of the Pennsylvania Woman's suffrage association, and Miss Jane Campbell, president of the Philadelphia society, will both be in attendance at the federation meeting, and will then come to Pittsburgh to take part in the meetings planned. The subject for the conferences will be "Woman's Place in the State." The meeting in Pittsburgh will be held on Saturday afternoon, October 21, and in the evening of the same day Mrs. Blankenburg and Miss Campbell will also speak in Wilkinsburg under the auspices of the Civic club of Wilkinsburg.

The latter club will hold its regular monthly meeting next Tuesday afternoon, October 3, in the home of Mrs. Franklin M. Lipp, 812 Swissvale avenue. The subject for discussion that day will be "Why Are Pennsylvania Men Opposed to Women Voting?"

Benefit Late in the Season.

At the monthly meeting of the board of managers of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Free Kindergarten association yesterday it was decided to put off the annual theatrical benefit for the association until after the holidays. No specially good play was found to be available between now and the holidays, and the managers decided it would be best under the circumstances to wait until after Christmas. An exhibition of the work of the children in the New York kindergarten, presided over by Mrs. Margaret Langzettel, who lectured on Wednesday in the First United Presbyterian church, was made and proved of great interest to the women in attendance at the meeting. Mrs. James I. Buchanan, the president of the association, who returned a few days ago from an extended western trip, presided.

Vassar Student's Alumnae to Meet.

The regular meeting of the Pittsburgh branch of the Vassar Students' Aid society will be held at the residence of the president, Mrs. Albert Daschbach, in Thornberg, Friday afternoon, October 6, at 2 o'clock.

WANTS NEW MONEY FOR THAT WHICH WAS BURNED

When Frank Cuzero arrived at the office of Alderman Schellman in Allegheny yesterday morning he carried with him, tied in a handkerchief, the charred and dilapidated remnants of his life's savings. The ashes and pieces of bank notes represented, he said, $750, and he had the bills sent to the treasury department at Washington in the hope that the government would make good his loss. Cuzero lived at 185 Shady avenue, Allegheny, and kept his money in a cupboard. On the morning of September 26 a fire started in the cupboard and the money was burned. Cuzero gathered up the ashes and has enough confidence in the government to feel that new bills will be exchanged for that which was burned.

Gives Bail for Hearing.

Frank Schmitt of Knoxville, against whom Frank T. Thompson had preferred charges of felonious shooting and assault, gave bail in $2,000 before Alderman Toole yesterday morning for a hearing October 12. Thompson had acquired Schmitt of insulting his wife, and when the men and Thompson's son met Schmitt was badly used up, a bullet passing through his hand during a struggle for a revolver. Charges are also pending against the Thompsons.

Committee Fails to Meet.

The committee on public safety of Pittsburgh Columbia failed to meet yesterday afternoon for want of a quorum. A call will be issued for a meeting of the committee next Wednesday at 2 p. m.
